Malcolm Glazer
Owner/President

On January 16, 1995, Malcom I. Glazer purchased the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League. Glazer currently serves as owner/president of the franchise.

In his first year as owner of the Buccaneers, Glazer displayed a strong and dedicated commitment toward building a winning and successful franchise. He allocated the resources which allowed the club to re-sign veteran free agents like two-time Pro Bowl linebacker Hardy Nickerson and standout offensive tackle Paul Gruber. The club's on-field improvement in '95 netted the franchise's best record in 14 years. Off the field, Glazer was the behind-the-scenes driving force that got the wheels turning in the construction of a state-of-the-art community stadium across from Tampa Bay's current home – Houlihan's Stadium.

Glazer's Buccaneers were named in 1995 as "The Outstanding Philanthropic Corporation of the Year" for the entire Tampa Bay area. Under Glazer's direction, the Buccaneer Grant Fund raised money for local charities over and above what the team donates directly to other worthy organizations.

In 1996, Glazer brought new Head Coach Tony Dungy to Tampa Bay and gave him an unprecedented six-year contract. Dungy's troops finished the season with victories in five of their final seven games including a franchise-best five consecutive wins at Houlihan's Stadium.

"Coach Dungy is as good as advertised," Glazer said. "We were very encouraged with the way the team came on at the conclusion of last season, and we are looking forward to even greater success this season. We are committed to being a first-class organization in all aspects of our operation. Our fans and opponents throughout the NFL will realize that very soon."

At the conclusion of the 1996 season, Glazer spearheaded massive changes at One Buc Place, the team's front-office and practice facility, which included 10,000-square-feet of new office space, a re-vamped season ticket purchasing operation, upgraded computers and more than 50 new employees working to make the Buccaneers one of the most respected organizations in the NFL.

Additionally, Glazer spent countless hours working to make the organization more fan-friendly, lowering ticket prices, and greatly expanding fan activities at Buccaneer home games with the formation of the club's new special events department. His mandate to increase player and coach visibility in the community was reflected in the more than 550 appearances made by Buccaneer players, coaches, and front office officials last year.

Glazer, a resident of Palm Beach, Florida, is president and chief executive officer of First Allied Corporation. First Allied serves as a holding company for Glazer's varied business interests. Mr. Glazer owns, controls, or is the largest shareholder of companies with $1.5 billion in sales which employ more than 17,000 people.

A true American success story, Glazer began working in his father's watch parts business at the age of eight. At the age of 15, Glazer's father died, and he assumed responsibility for the family business and expanded it.

Mr. Glazer owns a diverse portfolio of nationwide investments whose interests include restaurants, food service equipment, food packaging and foodservice supplies, marine protein, broadcasting, health care, real estate, banking, natural gas and oil production, stocks, government securities, and corporate bonds. He has been profiled in The New York Times and Forbes Magazine which stated that Glazer has "an eye for value."

Malcom Glazer owns Houlihan's Restaurant Group, Inc. Houlihan's is one of the nation's largest casual dining restaurant chains. Houlihan's owns approximately 100 restaurants in 23 states (including Houlihan's, Darryl's and the Buena Vista Café) and franchises an additional 30 Houlihan's in 11 states and Puerto Rico.

Mr. Glazer owns 45% of Zapata Corporation and is the chairman of the board. Founded by former President George Bush in 1954, Zapata is a diversified Houston-based international company with extensive marine protein holdings. Zapata also owns 41% of Envirodyne Industries, Inc., a premier worldwide producer of food packaging and foodservice supplies. Glazer also sits on Envirodyne's Board of Directors.

Mr. Glazer also owns 45% of Specialty Equipment Companies, Inc., and is the company's largest shareholder and a member of the Board of Directors. Specialty Equipment is a leading manufacturer of food service equipment and is a leading supplier of equipment to McDonald's Restaurants and other fast food restaurant chains worldwide. Specialty Equipment is also the world's leading designer and manufacturer of soft serve ice cream and shake machines through its Taylor Division. Specialty's Beverage-Air Division is a leading manufacturer of commercial refrigeration equipment for soft drink bottling and its World Dryer Division is the global leader in the manufacture of wall-mounted hand dryers.

Glazer's philanthropic and charitable activities have included significant involvement with the American Cancer Society, Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, United Jewish Appeal and the Jewish Guild for the Blind. Glazer has also been a benefactor for such worthwhile causes as the Muscular Dystrophy Association, Cystic Fibrosis, the American Heart Association, the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation, the Leukemia Society, St. Jude's Children's Hospital, the March of Dimes, Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), the Jewish Home for the Aged and Junior Achievement.

Born in Rochester, New York, Glazer and his wife, Linda, have six children: Avram, Kevin, Bryan, Joel, Ed, and Darcie.

Bryan Glazer
Executive Vice President

Originally one of the key figures in the negotiations which ultimately led to his family's purchase of the franchise, Bryan Glazer has been instrumental in creating the new image of the Buccaneers.

Glazer also works closely with the club's marketing, communications, and special events directors in all phases of the club's off-field operations. Glazer worked closely with designers from NFL Properties in New York and Los Angeles for more than two years developing the new logo concept, colors and design which perfectly compliment the new hard-hitting on-field image of the 1997 Buccaneers. This hard work paid off when an estimated 15,000 fans showed up for the official unveiling of the new uniforms at the Tampa Convention Center.

Along with his brother Joel, Bryan oversees the day-to-day operation of the entire franchise, including financial operations, marketing, ticketing, premium seat and luxury suite sales. Futhermore, Glazer represents the Buccaneers at all National Football League meetings.

Bryan was one of the leading negotiators in the club's successful bid to build a new community stadium. As a member of the Tampa Bay Super Bowl Task Force, Glazer was instrumental in bringing Super Bowl XXXV to Tampa Bay in 2001. In addition, Bryan is currently overseeing the final plans for the Buccaneers' new training facility slated for completion in 1998.

Community involvement is a priority for the 32-year-old Glazer. In addition to the countless appearances Bryan makes throughout the Tampa Bay area, he is a member of the Board of Directors of the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center.

A native of Rochester, Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986. Glazer also received his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989, and is a member of the Florida Bar Association.

Joel Glazer
Executive Vice President

Entering his third season with the team, Joel Glazer has been one of the driving forces behind the "new" Buccaneers. Glazer was originally one of the key figures in the negotiations which ultimately led to his family's purchase of the franchise.

Glazer, along with his brother Bryan, oversees the day-to-day operations of the entire franchise, including financial management, marketing, ticketing, premium seat and luxury suite sales. In addition, Glazer represents the Buccaneers at all National Football League meetings.

Glazer was one of the lead negotiators in the club's successful efforts to gain approval for the construction of a new community stadium. From the beginning, Glazer has overseen every aspect of the construction and design of the new stadium, ensuring that, upon its completion, the new Buccaneer venue will be the premier sports facility in the United States. In addition, Glazer is currently overseeing the final plans for the Buccaneers' new training facility slated for completion in 1998.

Glazer worked closely with designers from NFL Properties in New York and Los Angeles for more than two years developing the new logo concept, colors and uniform design which perfectly complement the 1997 Buccaneers' new hard-hitting on-field image.

Placing a high priority on customer relations, Glazer led the off-season effort to expand the Buccaneers' staff in all areas of operation. Under his guidance, the Buccaneers replaced their aging ticketing system with a new state-of-the-art computer system that will ensure an immediate response to any inquiries from the team's fans.

Since moving to Tampa in 1995, Glazer has been very active in the community making countless personal appearances for various organizations throughout the Tampa Bay area. Joel is also a member of the Tampa Bay Super Bowl Task Force that succeeded in bringing Super Bowl XXXV to the Tampa Bay area.

Glazer (30) earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from The American University in 1989. A native of Rochester, New York, he now lives in Tampa.

Edward Glazer
Executive Vice President

Edward Glazer, who is entering his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, will work closely with his brothers Bryan and Joel Glazer in all aspects of the club's daily operations.

Glazer, who joined the club during the 1997 off-season, is working extensively on special projects involving the completion of the new community stadium and training facility currently under construction. He will also provide assistance in financial matters involving the stadium, luxury suties and club seats.

Glazer shares his family's deep commitment and desire to provide the Tampa Bay community with a championship franchise in a state-of-the-art stadium and training facility, both of which will be completed by the start of the 1998 season.

In addition to his new duties with the Buccaneers, Glazer is vice president of acquisitions and financing for the First Allied Corporation, the holding company for the Glazer family's varied business interests. At First Allied, Edward Glazer was instrumental in the expansion of the company's real estate portfolio in Washington, D.C.

Glazer, 27, is a member of the Board of Directors of the Zapata Corporation, a New York Stock Exchange corporation which was founded by former President George Bush.

Born in Rochester, New York, Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Ithaca College in 1992. He and his wife Shari live in Tampa.

Richard McKay
General Manager

Entering his third full season as the club's general manager is Richard McKay.

McKay, who was named general manager of the Buccaneers on November 8, 1994, oversees the entire football administrative operation and negotiates all player contracts. He also supervises the club's college and pro personnel departments as well as the team's involvement in the NFL Draft, the waiver wire, trades, and free agency.

In 1994, NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue appointed McKay to the league's prestigious Competition Committee which studies the game and makes rule modifications that promote competitiveness and ensure player safety.

McKay has been the architect behind the club's last three drafts which have produced DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, DE Regan Upshaw, DT Marcus Jones, FB Mike Alstott, CB Donnie Abraham, RB Warrick Dunn, and WR Reidel Anthony. McKay maneuvered the club into position to draft Alstott in the second round of the 1996 Draft by trading 1995 third-round selection Harold Bishop for a 1996 second-round pick. Alstott responded by leading the club in receptions (65) and receiving yards (557) en route to becoming the NFC's leading rookie receiver and a Pro Bowl alternate.

McKay joined the Buccaneer franchise in 1992 and served as the club's Vice President/Football Administration, handling many of his present-day responsibilities.

Prior to coming to the Buccaneers on a full-time basis, McKay was an attorney with the Tampa Bay firm of Hill, Ward, and Henderson, joining them in 1986. While in that position, he served as the team's legal counsel for six years. He is regarded as one of the nation's leading experts on facility leases and has represented a number of professional sports teams on stadium issues regarding acquisitions, financing, and facility leases. McKay also played a key role in securing the new community stadium in Tampa that will serve as the new home of the Buccaneers during the 1998 season and for the next thirty years and will be the site for Super Bowl XXXV in 2001.

McKay earned a bachelor's degree with honors from Princeton University in 1981 then went on to graduate from from Stetson's College of Law in 1984. He clerked for two years for Tampa U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges.

McKay is the son of legendary coach John McKay, who won four national championships at the University of Southern California and was the first head coach in Buccaneers history (1976-84). Born March 16, 1959 in Eugene, Oregon, he grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa's Jesuit High School where he was the football team's starting quarterback. McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons, Hunter (7/20/88) and John (9/24/92). The family resides in Tampa.

Tony Dungy
Head Coach

17th NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Tony Dungy was named head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on January 22, 1996. Eleven months later, he guided his club to victories in five of their final seven games including a franchise-record five consecutive victories at Houlihan's Stadium. The strong finish gave Buccaneer fans reason to believe that winning seasons, playoff appearances, and the organization's ultimate goal - the Super Bowl - is on the way.

"Hiring Tony Dungy as our head coach was a great move for our entire organization and for our fans," said Owner/President Malcom Glazer. "From all of our research and from firsthand information, we found that Tony is not only one of the finest coaches in the National Football League, but that he is also one of the finest people in the league, as well."

Buccaneer fans found out what kind of football coach Dungy is last season when his team stumbled out of the blocks with an 0-5 record before recording their first victory of the season and Dungy's first as an NFL head coach - a 24-13 triumph over the Minnesota Vikings on October 13.

"As a coaching staff, we never hit the panic button," Dungy said. "We kept telling our guys that we were close to winning some games and that our system was going to work and produce wins. All the coaches and players continued to work hard, and things sort of picked up for us at the end of the season. We're looking to build upon our success during the 1997 season. We can play a lot better, and we will."

Dungy, known throughout the National Football League as one of the brightest defensive coaches in pro football, oversaw a defensive unit that held seven straight opponents to 17-points or less during one late-season stretch. His aggressive defenses have been known for takeaways and scoring touchdowns. In his last 14 seasons, his units have scored an amazing 48 defensive TDs. In fact, since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, only nine teams have scored as many as seven defensive touchdowns in a season and four of those have come under Dungy's guidance.

When Dennis Green became the Minnesota Vikings' head coach in 1992, he named Dungy as his defensive coordinator. In his four seasons with the Vikes, his defenses intercepted an NFL-best 95 passes as the team qualified for post season play three times. In 1995, Dungy's troops racked up impressive statistics. The Vikes finished second in the NFL in takeaways with 40, ranked second in the league in interceptions with 25, ended up fourth in the NFL against the rush and were tied for first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL in sacks with 44.

Dungy directed another successful defensive effort for the Vikings in 1994 despite having fewer first round picks (one) than any other playoff defense. Minnesota ranked first in the NFL in defensive TDs with seven, first in the league in run defense, was fifth in the NFL in total defense, tied for first in the NFC in fumble recoveries with 16, fourth in the conference in takeaways with 34 and tied for fifth in the NFC with 36 sacks. The Vikings' league-best 68.1 rushing yards allowed per game was the fourth-best in NFL history and the top league mark in 30 years (Buffalo 65.2 in 1964). Three of the four NFC Defensive Players of the Month for the '94 campaign were Vikings. CB Anthony Parker established a new NFL record with a defensive touchdown in three consecutive games while CB Dewayne Washington tied a league rookie record with three defensive scores for the season.

In 1993, under the direction of Dungy, the Vikes boasted the NFL's number one ranked defense (275.3 yards per game). Minnesota was also the league's only team to rank in the top six defenses against both the run and the pass. Only the defenses of the Vikings, Oilers and Jets produced more than one shutout in '93. Dungy's corps also led the NFC and ranked second in the NFL in interceptions with 24, was third in the NFC in takeaways with 34, paced the league in fewest first downs permitted (259), was number one in highest percentage of opponents' passes intercepted (5%) and finished fourth in the conference in sacks with 45.

In his first year with Minnesota (1992), Dungy's defense had five new starters yet still led the NFL in interceptions with 28, ranked first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 42 takeaways, tied for the league lead in defensive touchdowns with eight (NFL's best total in eight years), and tied for third in the NFL in sacks with 51. Additionally, the Viking defense was second in the league in yards allowed per play (4.5), finished first in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per pass play, had the NFL's lowest percentage of TD passes allowed (2.4%), finished third in the league in fewest TDs allowed with 23, ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and was seventh in the NFL against the pass. Four Viking defensive players were selected to participate in the Pro Bowl.

From 1989-91, Dungy was the defensive backs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs under Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer. In 1989, the Chiefs finished first in the AFC and second in the NFL in pass defense while the club qualified for the playoffs in 1990 and '91. From 1989-90, Kansas City allowed both the second fewest completions in the NFL (503 behind Minnesota's 470) and the league's second lowest completion percentage (51.2% behind Philadelphia's 48.5%). Under Dungy's guidance, CBs Albert Lewis and Kevin Ross were two-time Pro Bowl selections.

Dungy's first NFL coaching stop was with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1981-88. In '81, he became the youngest assistant coach in the NFL (25) when he joined the Steelers as a defensive assistant. From 1982-83, Dungy served as Pittsburgh's defensive backs coach, tutoring such Steeler stars as Mel Blount and Donnie Shell. In 1983, the Steelers' secondary permitted just seven touchdown passes in 16 games. In '84, Dungy became the youngest coordinator in the NFL when, at the age of 28, the Steelers tabbed him to run their defense. Pittsburgh's "D" ranked among the league's top six in each of his first two seasons as coordinator and, in his five years in that position, his defenses averaged 24 interceptions and 37 takeaways per season while scoring 20 touchdowns (including a league-best seven in 1987).

Dungy began his coaching career in 1980 at the age of 24 when he served as the defensive backs coach at the University of Minnesota (his alma mater).

As a player, Dungy was a quarterback at the University of Minnesota from 1973-76. He finished his Golden Gopher career as the school's all-time leader in pass attempts (576), completions (274), passing yards (3577) and touchdown passes (25). Dungy also rushed 413 times for 1,345 yards and 16 touchdowns. A two-time team Most Valuable Player, Dungy played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl and the Japan Bowl. At the time he completed his college career, he ranked fourth in Big Ten history in total offense behind Mike Phipps, Archie Griffin and Bob Griese. As a junior, he established a single-season school record with 15 TD passes while leading the Big Ten and ranking fifth nationally in both total offense and passing. As a freshman, Dungy played for the 1973-74 Gophers varsity basketball team, averaging 2.6 points per game before ultimately playing football only. He earned a B.A. in business administration.

Following his UM career, Dungy signed as a free agent with the Steelers in May, 1977. In training camp, he was converted from quarterback to wide receiver to safety, and he impressed the Pittsburgh coaching staff sufficiently to become the first free agent to make the team's final roster in two years. Dungy appeared in 14 games as a rookie and notched three interceptions. In a '77 game against the Houston Oilers, Steeler QBs Terry Bradshaw and Mike Kruczek were both injured and Dungy completed three of eight passes for 43 yards and rushed three times for eight yards. He had the unusual experience of making an interception and throwing one in the same game.

In 1978, Dungy played in all 16 games and, despite starting just two contests, he ranked second in the AFC with six interceptions. He saved the Steelers' 15-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns with an end zone interception on the game's final play which he returned 65 yards. Dungy played in the Steelers' 35-31 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl XIII. During training camp in 1979 (8/21), Dungy was traded to the San Francisco 49ers in exchange for a 1980 tenth-round draft choice. He participated in 15 games for the 49ers in '79. Prior to the 1980 campaign (3/27), Dungy was dealt to the New York Giants along with RB Mike Hogan in exchange for WR Jimmy Robinson and CB Ray Rhodes (current head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles).

Dungy has been active in community affairs in all of the cities that he has coached. Two of the organizations that he has worked very closely with include Big Brothers/Big Sisters and the Allegheny County Foster Care Center (Pittsburgh).

Born Anthony Kevin Dungy on October 6, 1955 in Jackson, Michigan, he graduated from Parkside High School in Jackson. He and his wife, Lauren, have three children including daughter Tiara (12/28/84), and sons James (1/6/87) and Eric (1/12/92).

Mark Asanovich
Strength & Conditioning Coach

3rd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Mark Asanovich begins his third NFL season and second as strength and conditioning coach for the Buccaneers. Asanovich, 38, who joined the Bucs last season after spending the 1995 campaign as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Minnesota Vikings, oversees all aspects of Tampa Bay's strength and conditioning program which includes the team's extensive four-month off-season workout program.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Asanovich worked from 1987-95 as the strength and conditioning coach at Anoka (Minn.) High School. During his tenure there, the school captured state football championships in 1990 and 1994. Anoka also won state titles in soccer (1989), wrestling (1991), and basketball (1992) during his nine years at the school. Asanovich came to Anoka after spending 1986 in a similar capacity at The Citadel.

In 1984, Asanovich was hired as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State as the Buckeyes won the Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl that season. That same season, he also worked as the strength and conditioning coach at Grove City (Ohio) High School. Asanovich was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach at Ohio State the following year as the team went 9-3 and defeated Brigham Young in the Citrus Bowl.

While in Minnesota, Asanovich was a member of the Governor's Council for Health and Physical Fitness and also was on the Executive Board of the Minnesota Association of Physical Education, Health, Exercise, Recreation, and Dance. He was also one of the first 15 coaches certified by the National Strength Conditioning Association.

Asanovich earned his bachelor's degree in special education from St. Cloud State and his master's in strength training and athletic conditioning from Ohio State.

A native of Duluth, Minnesota, Asanovich played guard and linebacker at the city's East High School. He resides in Clearwater, and is engaged to Allisen Givens.

Clyde Christensen
Tight Ends Coach

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Clyde Christensen was named as the Buccaneers' tight ends coach on February 1, 1996. Christensen joined the Bucs after spending the previous 16 years in a variety of coaching positions on the collegiate level.

In his first season with the Bucs, he oversaw the development of a tight end corps that featured rising star Jackie Harris and steadily emerging back-up Dave Moore. In 1996, the two tight ends combined to catch 57 passes for 586 yards and four touchdowns. Christensen's tutoring paid immediate dividends when Harris suffered through an injury-plagued season that allowed Moore to produce personal-bests in starts (8), catches (27), receptions (237) and touchdowns (3).

Before coming to Tampa, the 39-year-old Christensen spent two years (1994-95) as the co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Clemson. From 1992-93, he served as the quarterbacks coach at Maryland where he tutored John Kaleo and current Buccaneer backup quaterback Scott Milanovich. Under Christensen's direction, Maleo ranked second in the nation in total offense in 1992 while Milanovich finished fourth in 1993.

In 1991, Christensen served as running backs coach at South Carolina after spending 1989-1990 as an assistant coach at Holy Cross. While coaching the Crusaders, he oversaw the receivers and tight ends in '89 before being promoted to offensive coordinator for the '90 season. From 1986-88, Christensen was the offensive coordinator and was also in charge of recruiting at East Carolina as the Pirates built a reputation for offensive explosiveness against ranked opponents.

Christensen oversaw the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Temple from 1983-85 after holding the position of offensive coordinator at East Tennessee State from 1980-82. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Mississippi in 1979.

As a player, Christensen was an All-America quarterback for Fresno City Junior College from 1975-76. He continued his collegiate career as a QB at North Carolina where he lettered for the Tar Heels from 1977-78 as they earned trips to the Peach Bowl and Liberty Bowl. Christensen earned his bachelor's degree in industrial relations from UNC.

Born January 28, 1958 in Corvina, California, Clyde and his wife, Debbie, reside in Tampa with their three daughters, Rachel (7/15/83), Rebecca (9/12/85) and Ruth (9/6/90).

Herman Edwards

Assistant Head Coach/ Defensive Backs Coach

8th NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

When Buccaneer Head Coach Tony Dungy was looking for someone to tutor the team's defensive backs and to also assist him with various administrative functions, he knew he had to look no further than Herman Edwards. Dungy and Edwards have known each other since they played in the Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl college all-star games following the 1976 season.

In 1996, under Edwards' guidance, the Buccaneer pass defense rose from 16th in the league after the second week to fourth place by season's end. Led by safeties John Lynch and Melvin Johnson and cornerbacks Martin Mayhew and rookie sensation Donnie Abraham, the Tampa Bay defensive backs limited opposing offenses to an average of just 182.8 passing yards per game, the team's lowest mark since 1991 (179.5).

Edwards, 43, joined the Buccaneers after spending the past seven years in several different capacities with the Kansas City Chiefs. In 1995, he served as a pro scout in the Chiefs' player personnel department. From 1992-94, he was the team's defensive backs coach and was credited with the development of Dale Carter (AFC Defensive Rookie of the Year in '92) and Charles Mincy while also coaching Pro Bowlers Kevin Ross and Albert Lewis. In each of Edwards' three seasons as the Chiefs' DBs coach, the team ranked in the NFL's top three in takeaways and in the top ten in pass defense. In 1992, under Edwards' guidance, the Chiefs led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL in pass defense (158.6 yards per game). K.C.'s 24 interceptions was the third highest total in the league that season as Chief DBs scored five touchdowns.

In 1993, injuries rocked the Kansas City secondary and Edwards was forced to use five different starting combinations. Still, the Chiefs permitted just 196.6 yards per game and had 21 interceptions (seventh in NFL).

From 1990-91, Edwards was a talent scout for the Chiefs while also spending training camps as an assistant to Dungy who was then K.C.'s defensive backs coach. Edwards initially worked for the Chiefs in the summer of 1989 as the recipient of the team's Minority Coaching Fellowship. He began his coaching career at San Jose State as the Spartans' defensive backs coach from 1987-89. During each of his three seasons at SJSU, Spartan opponents completed less than 50% of their passes.

As an NFL player, Edwards played ten seasons including nine with the Philadelphia Eagles (1977-85). Undrafted following his college career, he was signed as a free agent by current Chiefs' President/General Manager Carl Peterson who was then the Eagles' Director of Player Personnel. As a rookie cornerback, Edwards started the first pre-season game and then proceeded to start all 135 games during his nine-year Eagle tenure. He earned Second Team All-NFC honors in 1980 and 1982, and played for the Eagles in Super Bowl XV (27-10 loss to Oakland Raiders).

However, Edwards is best remembered for recovering a fumble by New York Giant QB Joe Pisarcik and returning it 26 yards for a touchdown with 31 seconds remaining in Philadelphia's 19-17 "Miracle in the Meadowlands" (11/19/78). He left Philly with 33 career interceptions which ranks second on the team's all-time list behind Bill Bradley and Eric Allen (34). Including post-season play, his 38 interceptions is an Eagle record. Edwards' final NFL season came in 1986 when he played four games for the Los Angeles Rams and three for the Atlanta Falcons before announcing his retirement during the season (11/11).

Edwards began his college career at Cal-Berkeley and played there in 1972 and '74, earning All-PAC 8 (now PAC 10) honors. He set a Golden Bear record with four interceptions in one game. In 1973, he played at Monterrey Peninsula Junior College. Edwards played his senior season at San Diego State where he received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

Edwards and the Buccaneers' secondary this season are implementing a youth enrichment program called "Focus and Finish" which could become an adopted objective by the Hillsborough County Board of Education. The program will encourage high school athletes to excel in athletics and as citizens in their respective communities through volunteering, tutoring, and mentoring programs. The student-athletes involved in "Focus and Finish" must have a minimum 3.0 grade-point average and be involved in community service. The group will sit in a special section in the north endzone of Houlihan's Stadium courtesy of tickets purchased by Edwards and members of the Bucs secondary.

Edwards, for the second straight year, hosted the Herm Edwards Football Camp, which was attended by more than 300 underprivileged youth living on the Monterey Peninsula. He also hosted the 10th Annual Herman Edwards Charity Golf Classic which has raised more than $15,000 annually since its inception in 1986. The money raised by the golf tournament goes to the Boys and Girls Club in Seaside, California.

A native of Monmouth, New Jersey, Edwards grew up in Seaside, California. He has a son, Marcus (12/13/81), and resides in Tampa.

Chris Foerster
Offensive Line Coach

5th NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

After working together on the Minnesota Vikings' staff, Chris Foerster (FUR-ster) was one of Head Coach Tony Dungy's first hirings when he was tabbed to be the Buccaneers' offensive line coach on January 24, 1996. Foerster came to the Bucs after spending three years (1993-95) as an assistant coach for the Vikings.

In his first Tampa season, Foerster took over an offensive line unit that suffered various injuries to key personnel. Despite the fact that the unit's five starters played together in just one game, the Buc offensive line ranked 12th in the league in sacks allowed, surrendering just 30 takedowns.

Foerster joined the Vikes in 1993 as assistant offensive line coach and also helped with the tight ends in 1994. In 1996, he was promoted to tight ends/assistant offensive line coach by Minnesota Head Coach Dennis Green. The Vikings' offensive line solidified their reputation for getting the tough yards as the team earned a first down on 25 of 27 third or fourth down tries from three yards or less. In '94, Minnesota gained a club-record 5,848 yards and permitted just 31 sacks in 704 pass attempts. That ratio of a sack every 22.7 passes was the second best in team history. In Foerster's first Viking season, the club produced a sackless streak of 14 consecutive quarters which was a team record.

In Foerster's three years with the Vikes, G Randall McDaniel was selected to three Pro Bowls. In '94, TE Andrew Jordan and T Todd Steussie were named as consensus all-rookie picks.

In 1992, prior to accepting his post with the Vikings, Foerster worked as the offensive line coach at the University of Minnesota under Head Coach Jim Wacker. That season, the Gophers set a school mark for completions while also leading the Big Ten in passing yards. One of Foerster's players, T Keith Ballard, was named as the team's Most Valuable Player.

From 1988-91, Foerster tutored the offensive line at Stanford, working the last three years for then-Cardinal Head Coach Dennis Green. While Foerster was at Stanford, T Bob Whitfield developed into an All-America and 1992 first-round draft choice, and FB Tommy Vardell set a school career and single-season record for rushing TDs. Foerster began his college coaching career at Colorado State in 1983 as a graduate assistant. He was promoted to offensive line coach the following season and remained with the Rams through the 1987 campaign. While at CSU, Foerster's line played in front of the school's all-time leading rusher (Steve Bartalo) and passer (Kelly Stouffer), and the school boasted three First Team All-Western Athletic Conference offensive linemen.

Foerster played center at Colorado State from 1979-82, originally as a walk-on before earning a starting job and a scholarship as a junior. In his senior year, the Rams set a school record for passing yards in a season. The previous year, Foerster was named as CSU's outstanding scholar-athlete. Foerster earned his bachelor's degree in history in Colorado State.

A native of Milwaukee, Foerster grew up in Tucson, Arizona where he earned all-city honors in football. He and his wife, Michelle, live in St. Petersburg with daughter Kathleen (8/9/88) and son Jake (12/6/91).

Monte Kiffin

Defensive Coordinator

15th NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Monte Kiffin enters his second Tampa Bay campaign as the team's defensive coordinator with one of the most talent-laden units in team history. Led by Pro Bowl linebacker Hardy

Nickerson, the Buccaneer defense gelled into one of the league's most efficient units, finishing 1996 ranked 11th overall. Kiffin's one-gap defensive scheme proved to be tailor-made for defensive tackle Warren Sapp and the upstart Buc defensive line that recorded 35 QB takedowns.

The 57-year-old Kiffin came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 campaign as the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. In 1995, the Saints tied for fourth in the NFL in sacks with 44 as DT Wayne Martin led the team with 13. Just prior to coaching in New Orleans, Kiffin spent four seasons (1991-94) as an assistant coach for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive coordinator for Head Coach Jerry Burns in 1991 and as inside linebackers coach for Head Coach Dennis Green and Defensive Coordinator Tony Dungy from 1992-94. During that tenure in Minnesota, Kiffin's star pupil was Jack Del Rio as the Vikes led the league in both total defense and run defense in 1994. In '93, Minnesota allowed the fewest first downs in the NFL while pacing the NFC in rushing defense. In 1992, the Vikings rated second in the league as the defense permitted just 4.5 yards per play.

In 1990, Kiffin tutored the linebackers for the New York Jets under then-Head Coach Bruce Coslet and Defensive Coordinator Pete Carroll. Kiffin helped Kyle Clifton tie for the NFL lead in interceptions among linebackers. Kiffin had his first tour of duty with the Vikings as the team's linebackers coach from 1986-89. During that time, he coached standout Viking LBs Scott Studwell, Chris Doleman and Mike Merriweather. In both '88 (255.7, 4.3) and '89 (261.5, 4.1), Minnesota was the league leader in both total defense and yards allowed per play.

From 1984-85, Kiffin coached the linebackers for the Buffalo Bills, overseeing players like Darryl Talley and Jim Haslett who later coached with Kiffin in New Orleans. Kiffin's first professional coaching job came in 1983 as the linebackers coach for the Green Bay Packers under then-Head Coach Bart Starr.

Kiffin was the head coach at North Carolina State from 1980-82, compiling a 16-17 record including 6-5 marks in 1981 and '82. Former Philadelphia Eagle Pro Bowl WR Mike Quick played for the Wolfpack under Kiffin. From 1977-79, Kiffin was defensive coordinator for Lou Holtz at Arkansas while also serving as assistant head coach in '79. Chicago Bear great Dan Hampton was coached by Kiffin at Arkansas as the Razorbacks led the nation in scoring defense in 1977.

Kiffin began his coaching career at Nebraska where he worked from 1966-76 under both Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. NU captured national championships in both 1970 and '71. He was a defensive assistant from 1966-72 before being promoted to defensive coordinator. Future NFLers like Outland Trophy winner Rich Glover, John Dutton and Bob Nelson were Cornhuskers under Kiffin.

As a player, Kiffin played both offensive and defensive tackle at Nebraska from 1959-63. Following graduation, he sat out the 1964 season due to a knee injury before playing defensive end for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 1965.

A native of Lexington, Nebraska, Kiffin was that state's High School Athlete of the Year in 1958. Monte and his wife, Robin, live in St. Petersburg. They have three children including daughter Heidi (9/5/68) and sons Lane (5/9/75) and Chris (1/19/82). Lane played quarterback at Fresno State with current Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer.

Aaron Komarek

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Aaron Komarek begins his second season as the Buccaneers' assistant strength coach. Komarek assists Strength and Conditioning Coach Mark Asanovich with all areas of the Buccaneers' strength and conditioning program, including the team's four-month off-season workout schedule.

Before coming to Tampa Bay, the 26 year-old Komarek worked with Asanovich from 1993-95 as a strength and conditioning intern for the Minnesota Vikings and as a strength and conditioning coach for Minnesota's Anoka High School. Under his coaching, the 1994 Anoka football team went undefeated (14-0) and captured the high school state championship.

Komarek graduated with honors from the University of Minnesota in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. The St. Paul, Minnesota native is a member of Florida's Expert Strength Council and served as Minnesota's Co-State Director of the National Strength & Conditioning Association in 1994. He is single and resides in Tampa.

Joe Marciano
Special Teams Coach

12th NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Only one other assistant coach on the Buccaneers' staff (Monte Kiffin) owns as much NFL coaching experience as Joe Marciano possesses. The outgoing Marciano came to Tampa Bay last season to coach the club's special teams. Over the past 11 years, he has earned respect throughout the NFL for his ability to coach this increasingly important phase of the game.

In 1996, Marciano's Tampa Bay unit provided some of the season's most memorable moments. Marciano's special teams techniques helped develop rookie Karl Williams into one of the league's most electrifying return men by season's end. Despite waiting until the last month of the season to assume primary return responsibilities, Williams recorded two of the three longest punt returns in franchise history. In addition, the Bucs paced the NFL in average opponent kickoff drive start (22.3) and ranked third in the league in opponent punt return average (6.5).

Marciano joined Tampa Bay after spending the past ten years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. In 1995, the Saints ranked third in the league in lowest punt return average allowed (6.5) and sixth in lowest kickoff return average permitted (19.8). New Orleans also rated fourth in highest kickoff return average with a 23.2 mark.

During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Head Coach Joe Paterno at Penn State. There, he coached future NFL offensive lineman Ron Heller who played TE for the Nittany Lions. Marciano also coached tight ends at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pennsylvania in 1976.

The 43-year-old Marciano was a quarterback at Temple where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. A native of Dunmore, Pennsylvania, he is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He is single and resides in Tampa.

Rod Marinelli

Defensive Line Coach

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Perhaps no assistant on the Tampa Bay staff had more pressure placed on him last year than Defensive Line Coach Rod Marinelli. Marinelli inherited a unit composed of four first round picks (DE Eric Curry, DE Regan Upshaw, DT Warren Sapp and DT Marcus Jones). His high-energy approach led to vast improvement last season in a pass rush that yielded 35 sacks, including a team-high nine by Sapp, the unit's emerging star.

A veteran of 20 seasons as a college assistant coach, Marinelli came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 season as the defensive line coach at Southern Cal under Head Coach John Robinson. From 1992-94, Marinelli was the assistant head coach/defensive line for Head Coach Bruce Snyder at Arizona State. In 1993, three of his starting linemen earned All-PAC 10 honors. Shante Carver (now with Dallas Cowboys) was an All-America pick and was also a finalist for the Outland and Lombardi trophies.

From 1983-91, Marinelli coached the defensive line at Cal-Berkeley, adding assistant head coach to his title for his final two Golden Bear seasons. Snyder became the school's head coach in 1987. While at California, Marinelli coached several future NFLers including Chidi Ahanotu, Rhett Hall and Natu Tuatagaloa.

Marinelli's first coaching job came in 1976 from Snyder who was then the head coach at Utah State. From 1976-81, Marinelli oversaw the Aggies' defensive line before becoming USU's offensive line/special teams coach for the 1982 campaign. In six seasons as the D-Line coach for Utah State, three of his players (Rulon Jones, Mike Perko, Shawn Miller) won conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Marinelli began his coaching career at his alma mater, Rosemead High School in San Gabriel Valley, California, from 1973-75.

Marinelli played offensive and defensive tackle at Utah in 1968 before serving a one-year stint in Vietnam. He returned from the service and attended California Lutheran from 1970-72, earning NAIA All-America honors as an offensive tackle in '72. Marinelli earned his bachelor's degree in history from CLC.

Born July 13, 1949 in Rosemead, California, Rod and his wife, Barbara, reside in Tampa. The family includes daughters Christine (2/11/70) and Gina (8/8/81). Christine is married to Joe Barry, a linebackers coach at Northern Arizona University.

Tony Nathan
Running Backs Coach

10th NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

After spending his entire 17-year career as an NFL player and coach with the Miami Dolphins, Tony Nathan now begins his second season as the Buccaneers' running backs coach. Known as a tough, clutch runner and receiver during his playing days, Nathan became a coach for Don Shula when he retired after the 1987 season.

In his first season as Tampa Bay's running backs coach, Nathan oversaw the rapid development of Mike Alstott in 1996. Alstott showcased his all-around abilities by leading the team in pass receptions (65) and average per rush (3.9). In 1997, Nathan will also be responsible for the progress of first-round pick Warrick Dunn, an electrifying runner with game-breaking speed.

From 1988-95, Nathan was an assistant coach for the Dolphins. Initially hired by Shula as a coaches' assistant, Nathan's responsibilities included breaking down game film and charting plays. In 1993, he was promoted to Miami's offensive backs coach. His coaching philosophy, which puts an emphasis on a back's ability to catch the ball as well as run with it, mirrors his own style during his playing days. In 1995, Bernie Parmalee, formerly an undrafted free agent, led the Dolphins in rushing with 878 yards and nine TDs while Terry Kirby finished in the AFC's top ten in receptions. In 1993, Nathan's first season supervising the team's RBs, Kirby (75) and Keith Byars (61) combined for an NFL backfield-best 136 receptions which was also the highest total by two backs in Dolphin annals.

Nathan was a running back for Miami from 1979-87. In Dolphin history, he ranks fourth on the club's all-time list in rushing attempts (732), rushing yards (3,543) and receptions (383). He is also fifth in receiving yards (3,592), tied for ninth in scoring (198 points, 33 TDs), seventh in punt return yards (484) and ninth in kick return yards (1,133). In 1981, Nathan was named the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player after leading the team in rushing with a career-high 782 yards and an NFL-best 5.3-yard rushing average.

Nathan played in Super Bowls XVII and XIX for the Dolphins when the team lost to the Washington Redskins and the San Francisco 49ers. Perhaps the single play Nathan is most remembered for occurred in one of the NFL's greatest games, a 41-38 OT playoff loss to San Diego on January 2, 1982. Nathan scored on a 25-yard run following a lateral from WR Duriel Harris on the "hook and ladder" play.

As a collegian, Nathan starred at Alabama from 1975-78. In both his junior and senior seasons, the Crimson Tide posted an 11-1 record including a national championship in 1978. In his Alabama career, Nathan rushed for 1,997 yards on 310 carries with 29 touchdowns. He gained 770 yards in the national championship season and ran for 127 yard in the Tide's 14-7 Sugar Bowl win over Penn State that clinched the title.

Born December 14, 1956 in Birmingham, Alabama, Nathan was a four-sport letterman at that city's Woodlawn High School. Tony and his wife, Johnnie, have three daughters including Francheria (7/8/80), Natalie (8/9/83) and Nadia (5/27/87).

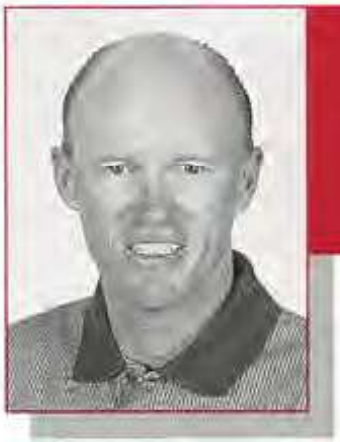
PASSING IT ON

Sure hands, sharp football instincts and all-around athletic ability were surely the traits that led to FB Mike Alstott's surprise emergence as the NFC's leading rookie receiver in 1996. However, Alstott also had a hidden advantage: Buccaneer Running Backs Coach Tony Nathan, one of the finest pass-catching backs of the 1980's. In a nine year career with the Miami Dolphins from 1979-87, Nathan snared 383 passes for 3,592 yards and even surpassed Alstott's '96 totals with a 72-catch campaign in 1985. As a Dolphins' coach, Nathan proved that he could pass along his gridiron knowledge, helping RB Terry Kirby rack up 75 receptions for 874 yards as a rookie in 1993.



Kevin O'Dea

Defensive Assistant Coach

4th NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Kevin O'Dea begins his second season as a defensive assistant on Head Coach Tony Dungy's staff. In his role with the Bucs, the 37-year-old O'Dea works closely with Defensive Coordinator Monte Kiffin in preparing game plans, breaking down film of opponents' tendencies and producing scouting reports.

O'Dea joined the Buccaneers after spending the 1994-95 seasons in a similar role with the San Diego Chargers under Head Coach Bobby Ross. In his first San Diego season, O'Dea worked with the linebackers, then was primarily involved with the defensive backs in 1995. In '94, the Chargers advanced to Super Bowl XXIX where they were defeated by the San Francisco 49ers. Prior to his stint in San Diego, O'Dea spent three years (1991-93) working for Joe Paterno at Penn State. In 1991, he was a graduate assistant coach working with the wide receivers before being promoted to assistant strength coach and also working with the defensive line (1992) and the linebackers (1993).

O'Dea also had a similar three-year stint at the University of Virginia from 1988-90. He began as a graduate assistant (defensive backs) for two years under Head Coach George Welsh before moving on to become the assistant strength coach in his final season with the Cavaliers. In 1987, O'Dea was the defensive backs coach at Cornell.

After a four-year term in the Coast Guard from 1979-83, O'Dea enrolled at Lock Haven University. He played defensive back and wide receiver for the Bald Eagles from 1983 until suffering a back injury during the 1985 season. He helped out coaching the receivers for the remainder of the '85 campaign, then served as the receivers coach in 1986 while still a student at the school.

O'Dea earned his bachelor's degree in fitness management from Lock Haven and also has a master's in sports medicine from Virginia. A native of Williamsport, Virginia, he is single and lives in Tampa.

Mike Shula
Offensive Coordinator

10th NFL Season, 5th with Buccaneers

Mike Shula, one of the NFL's youngest offensive coordinators, begins his second season overseeing the Tampa Bay offense. The 1997 season is one filled with optimism as Shula will orchestrate an offense which features an array of skill position players featuring QB Trent Dilfer, RB Errict Rhett, TE Jackie Harris, and rookie top draft choices RB Warrick Dunn and WR Reidel Anthony.

The 32-year-old Shula joined the Buccaneers last season, marking the return to the city where he began his coaching career, after spending the 1993-95 seasons as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears. He assisted Bears Head Coach Dave Wannstedt and then Offensive Coordinator Ron Turner with the planning and implementation of the Bears' game plans. During the 1995 season, Chicago rated eighth in scoring and ninth in total offense in the NFL.

Shula enters the 1997 season with the most offensive firepower in recent team history. Sparked by Dilfer's solid play in the latter part of 1996, the Buccaneers reeled off five wins in their last seven contests, including a franchise-record five at home. Shula's influence on Dilfer began to show through in mid-season when the third-year player threw 11 TDs and compiled a 77.5 passer rating in the final 11 games. Fullback Mike Alstott fulfilled the pre-draft hype in his first campaign, leading the Bucs as well as all NFC rookies in receptions with 65. Dunn and Anthony, along with the return of a healthy WR Horace Copeland, are expected to inject game-breaking speed into Shula's offensive system which emphasizes the use of a two-back set.

From 1991-92, Shula was a coaches' assistant for the Miami Dolphins. In that role, he worked not only with the coaching staff but also assisted the player personnel department in pro scouting.

He began his coaching career with the Buccaneers as the NFL's youngest assistant (23), working as a coach on Head Coach Ray Perkins' staff from 1988-90. In his first two seasons, Shula was an offensive assistant before being promoted to quarterbacks coach for the 1990 campaign. As QB coach, he tutored then-Buccaneer signal-caller Vinny Testaverde.

A quarterback as a player, Shula was a 12th round draft choice of the Bucs in 1987, but was waived in the final cut. He was later re-signed and finished the season with Tampa Bay.

Shula was a three-year starter for Perkins at Alabama, completing 298 of 552 passes (54.0%) for 3881 yards, 33 touchdowns and 30 interceptions. He was a two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection and led the Crimson Tide to victories in the Aloha and Sun bowls in his final two seasons. As a junior, he became only the second Alabama quarterback ever to throw for over 2000 yards in a single season (also Scott Hunter in 1969). Shula was invited to the Senior Bowl all-star game where he played for his father, Don. Shula earned his bachelor's degree in labor relations from Alabama.

Born June 3, 1965 in Baltimore, Shula attended Columbus High School in Miami where he earned all-state honors and led his team to the state championship game as a senior. He is single and resides in Clearwater.

Lovie Smith
Linebackers Coach

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

The 1997 season marks Lovie Smith's second as the team's linebackers coach. Smith's very talented corps of linebackers is headed up by two-time Pro Bowler Hardy Nickerson and rising star Derrick Brooks. Nickerson earned his second post-season trip to Hawaii after recording 120 stops which was second to Brooks' team-best total of 133. The addition of veteran free agent Rufus Porter should solidify one of the strongest units on the team.

The 38-year-old Smith spent the 1995 season coaching defensive backs for John Cooper at Ohio State. The Buckeyes enjoyed a highly-successful season capped off by an appearance in the Citrus Bowl against Tennessee. Smith spent the 1993-94 campaigns in a similar capacity at Tennessee under Head Coach Phil Fulmer. In 1992, Smith coached the outside linebackers for Bill Curry at Kentucky.

From 1988-91, Smith oversaw the linebackers at Arizona State for Head Coach Larry Marmie who later served as Tennessee's defensive coordinator when Smith was at UT. Smith had joined the Sun Devils after spending 1987 as the linebackers coach at Wisconsin. His first college coaching position came at Tulsa (his alma mater). Smith coached linebackers for the Golden Hurricane from 1983-86 when Cooper was the head coach at TU. Smith's first jobs came at Big Sandy (Tex.) High School in 1980 and at Tulsa's Cascia Hall prep school in 1981.

As a player, Smith was a two-time All-America and three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference linebacker for Cooper at Tulsa. Smith enjoyed a spectacular high school career at Big Sandy in which he was named all-state on three occasions as his school captured three state championships.

A native of Big Sandy, Texas, Lovie and his wife, MaryAnne, have three sons, Mikal (11/16/76), a junior defensive back at Arizona, Matthew (8/26/86) and Miles (9/27/89). The family resides in Tampa.

Ricky Thomas
Offensive Assistant Coach
2nd NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Ricky Thomas became the only 1997 addition to the Buccaneers' coaching staff on April 11 when he was named the team's offensive assistant. A former Seattle Seahawk safety who has coached for the past nine years at the high school and collegiate levels, Thomas will work closely with Offensive Coordinator Mike Shula in preparing game plans. His duties will also include film analysis of upcoming opponents and the production of scouting reports.

The 32-year-old Thomas comes to the Buccaneers after a short stint on the coaching staff at Gardner Webb University. He was named Gardner Webb's defensive backs coach on January 20 of this year after spending one season as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Kentucky. Thomas has also served as a volunteer coach during training camps for the Chicago Bears (1995) and Pittsburgh Steelers (1996).

Prior to joining Kentucky's staff, Thomas spent five years (1992-96) on the faculty at the McCallie School in Chattanooga, TN teaching human development and coaching the football, wrestling and track and field teams. During this time, he also completed his master's degree in secondary education at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. Thomas had come to McCallie after one year as an assistant coach and athletic recruiter at Marion (AL) Military Institute.

As a player, Thomas was a four-year starter at strong safety for the University of Alabama, where he earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. Though not drafted, he joined the Seahawks' training camp in 1987 and made the team as a free agent rookie, appearing in one game. Thomas also went to training camp with the Indianapolis Colts in 1988.

Long associated with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Thomas served as that organization's co-president in 1985-86. A native of Niceville, Florida, Thomas and his wife, Kimberly, have two children, daughter Kaitlyn (3/24/93) and son Ricky, Jr. (12/25/96). The family has relocated to Tampa.

Charlie Williams

Wide Receivers Coach

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Charlie Williams begins his second season as wide receivers coach of the Buccaneers. Williams returns a solid wide receiving corps that features Horace "Hi-C" Copeland, Robb Thomas, Karl Williams, and rookie first-round draft pick Reidel Anthony from the University of Florida. Williams' task will be to motivate his young group of wide receivers, most of whom are entering the prime of their careers.

Prior to coming to Tampa, Williams spent three years in a similar capacity at the University of Miami. With the 'Canes, he was instrumental in the development of their outstanding group of young receivers. In 1995, Williams was retained by new UM Head Coach Butch Davis after spending his first two Miami seasons working for Dennis Erickson.

Williams spent one year (1992) coaching the receivers at the University of Minnesota for Head Coach Jim Wacker. He had followed Wacker to UM from Texas Christian where he had spent the 1988-91 seasons coaching the Horned Frogs' wideouts. In 1989, The Sporting News recognized TCU's group of receivers as the best in the nation. From 1986-87, Williams tutored the running backs at New Mexico State after serving as the defensive backs coach at Long Beach City College from 1984-85. Williams' first two coaching jobs were on the high school level, at Long Beach Poly in 1983 and at Fairview H.S. in Boulder, Colorado in 1982. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State in 1981.

As a collegian, Williams played defensive back at Long Beach City College from 1977-78 before transferring to Colorado State where he played from 1979-80. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from CSU.

A native of Long Beach, California, Charlie and his wife, Shellie, reside in Tampa with daughter Sydney (12/11/90) and son Gregory (3/16/94).

Jerry Angelo
Director of Player Personnel

17th NFL Season, 11th with Buccaneers

Jerry Angelo is in his 11th year as the Buccaneers' director of player personnel. In that role, he oversees the team's scouting department and also coordinates the Bucs' internal information network on all other NFL players for free agency purposes. Angelo has 17 years of experience in NFL scouting and 12 years of coaching at the college and professional level.

Angelo joined the Buccaneers in 1987 after spending four years (1983-86) as a regional scout for the New York Giants. Prior to that, he spent one year as the linebackers coach for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. Angelo's first post with a professional team came as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys from 1980-81.

Angelo was the defensive line coach at Syracuse from 1975-80 after serving as the defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator at the University of Tampa from 1973-74. Angelo left UT after the Spartans eliminated their football program. His first full-time coaching job came as the defensive line coach at Colorado State in 1972. Angelo served as a graduate assistant at Miami of Ohio in 1971.

Angelo obtained his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Miami of Ohio where he played three years as a defensive tackle for Bo Schembechler and Bill Mallory. Angelo also earned a master's degree in education from Miami.

Jerry and his wife, Bernie, have two daughters, Lisa (9/4/69) and Sutton (12/4/85). The family resides in Tierra Verde.

Tim Ruskell
Director of College Scouting

11th NFL Season, 11th with Buccaneers

Tim Ruskell joined the Buccaneers as a regional scout in 1987 and was promoted to his current position of director of college scouting in 1992. He coordinates a staff of four regional scouts and oversees the team's compilation of information on college players.

Before moving to the Bucs, Ruskell served as the director of scouting for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits from 1985-86. Ruskell worked as a scout for the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders from 1983-85. He was hired in Saskatchewan by then-General Manager John Herrera who had previously been a scout for the Buccaneers. From 1978-83, Ruskell worked as an on-air radio talent in Tampa.

Ruskell attended the University of South Florida and earned his bachelor's degree in journalism in 1978. While a student at USF, he worked for the Bucs during their inaugural training camp of 1976 and also did some research projects for the team's scouting department.

Ruskell was born on October 20, 1956 in Yokahama, Japan where his father was stationed in the Army. The family eventually relocated to Tampa, and Ruskell graduated from King High School. Tim and his wife, Linda, live in Carrollwood with daughter Samantha (2/26/96).

Mike Ackerley
College Scout

5th NFL Season, 5th with Buccaneers

In his fifth year with the Buccaneers, Mike Ackerley is responsible for scouting the west coast for the team. He joined Tampa Bay after spending four years (1988-91) as the defensive line coach at Arizona State.

Prior to going to ASU, Ackerley spent 1987 as the defensive backs coach at Bakersfield Junior College where he had coached the linebackers in 1985. In between those Bakersfield assignments, Ackerley was the defensive line coach for Ted Tollner at Southern California. From 1984-85, he worked as the linebackers coach for the USFL's Los Angeles Express, ultimately being promoted to defensive coordinator.

Ackerley spent one year (1983) as the defensive line coach at Iowa State after spending the 1980-82 campaigns coaching outside linebackers at Kansas. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State from 1970-72 until being promoted to coach CSU's defensive line from 1973-79.

As a collegian, Ackerley played offensive line for Bakersfield J.C. and for Colorado State where he earned his bachelor's degree. A native of St. Paul, Minnesota, he has three children including sons Chad (6/27/70), Cale (8/15/80), and daughter Carrie (3/31/73). Mike and his wife, Jeanne, reside in Mesa, Arizona.

Dave Boller
College Scout

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Dave Boller joined the Buccaneers as a college scout in June, 1995. His scouting responsibilities with Tampa Bay include the midwest section of the United States.

The 35-year-old Boller came to Tampa Bay after spending ten years in various capacities at Arizona State. From 1988-95, he served as the Sun

Devils' administrative assistant for football operations. In that capacity, Boller worked with ASU Head Coach Bruce Snyder in the day-to-day operations of the football program as well as assisting in recruiting, team travel and the coordination of ASU's football camps. From 1985-87, he was ASU's assistant equipment manager. Boller also previously worked in an administrative capacity for the USFL's Arizona Outlaws.

As a student, Boller attended Arizona State and was the head manager for the football team from 1983-85. A native of Davenport, Iowa who was raised in Plymouth, Indiana, Dave and his wife, Jill, reside in Cicero, Indiana.

Ruston Webster
College Scout

10th NFL Season, 10th with Buccaneers

Ruston Webster is in his 10th year as a member of the Buccaneers' scouting and personnel department. He joined the team in 1988 as the Bucs' scout for the northeast. From 1989-91, Webster served as the club's director of pro personnel. In 1992, he returned to the field as the Buccaneers' scout for the southern states and shifted to the midwest region in '93 and the southwest in '95.

Before joining Tampa Bay, Webster was the tight ends/safeties coach at Tulsa University in 1987. In 1986, he was a graduate assistant at Alabama under former Buccaneer Head Coach Ray Perkins. Webster also served a graduate assistantship at Southwestern Louisiana in 1985.

Webster earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from the University of Mississippi. A native of Madison, Mississippi, Ruston and his wife, Gayle, live in Cordova, Tennessee.

Mike Yowarsky
College Scout

7th NFL Season, 7th with Buccaneers

A seven-year member of the Buccaneers' scouting staff, Mike Yowarsky is responsible for the eastern portion of the United States. He joined Tampa Bay in 1991 after spending the 1990 campaign as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida under Head Coach Steve Spurrier.

Prior to working at UF, Yowarsky spent 1989 as a teacher, assistant football coach and wrestling coach at Bradley High School in Cleveland, Tennessee. From 1984-85, he was a graduate assistant at Kansas and then served as a defensive assistant for the Jayhawks from 1986-88. Yowarsky taught in the Knoxville school system from 1983-84.

John Idzik
Coordinator of Football Administration
5th NFL Season, 5th with Buccaneers

John Idzik is in his fifth year with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and his second as Coordinator of Football Administration. In his current role, Idzik assists in player contract negotiations, player salary cap management, football budget administration, and player personnel evaluations. In addition, Idzik coordinates the club's travel and computer operations. Idzik started with the Buccaneers in 1993 as a Pro Personnel Assistant.

Idzik came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1991-92 seasons as a graduate assistant at Duke University where he coached the offensive line under then-Head Coach Barry Wilson. Prior to that, he spent 1990 as the offensive backfield coach for the Aberdeen Oilers (Scotland) of the British American Football League. Idzik's first coaching job was as the receivers coach at the University of Buffalo in 1982.

Idzik was raised in a football family as his father, John, was the Head Coach for Aberdeen after previously serving as an NFL assistant coach for the Miami Dolphins, Baltimore Colts, Philadelphia Eagles, and New York Jets.

From 1983-89, Idzik was a Programming Project Manager and Systems Engineer for IBM, working in White Plains, N.Y., Atlanta, and Tampa.

Idzik graduated magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Dartmouth College in 1982, where he earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics and played wide receiver, culminating with an Ivy championship his senior season. He also obtained a master's degree in liberal studies from Duke University in 1992. A native of Detroit, he and his wife, Carol, have two sons, Bryant (12/22/89) and Bradley (10/20/91), and a daughter, Holly (5/23/95). The family resides in Palm Harbor.

Mark Dominik
Pro Personnel Assistant
4th NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Mark Dominik was added to the Buccaneers' staff in June, 1995 as a pro personnel assistant. He assists in scouting the AFC and recruiting free agents while also providing reports on current Buccaneers.

The St. Cloud, Minnesota native also compiles advanced scouting reports on the Buccaneers' upcoming opponents and coordinates free agent workouts. Dominik joined Tampa Bay after spending a year-and-a-half working in the college scouting and pro personnel departments for the Kansas City Chiefs.

While with the Chiefs, Dominik assisted in scouting, maintaining print and film files on draft eligible players, and the data processing of player information. Prior to his stint with the Chiefs, he worked in the sports marketing/promotions department at the University of Kansas.

Dominik has a bachelor's of science degree in education from Kansas. Dominik and his wife, Amy, live in Tampa.

Dennis Hickey
Pro Personnel Assistant

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Buccaneers

Dennis Hickey begins his second season in the Buccaneers' scouting department after joining the club July 15, 1996. He is primarily involved in compiling scouting information on NFC teams and also conducts the personnel evaluations for unrestricted free agents. Hickey also prepares advanced scouting reports on upcoming Buccaneer opponents and conducts free agent workouts.

Hickey, 26, came to the Buccaneers after spending the 1994-95 season as an assistant coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas. At Blinn, he coached the defensive backs and was also responsible for recruiting in Texas.

Collegiately, Hickey played at Coffeyville Community College and the University of Tulsa. He received his bachelor's degree from Tulsa in 1994 and his master's degree from Texas A&M University in 1996. He and his wife, Stephanie, live in Tampa.

Todd Toriscelli
Head Trainer

Todd Toriscelli enters his first season as the head trainer for the Buccaneers. Toriscelli comes to the club after spending the past seven years as a head trainer at the Division I-A collegiate level with Stanford, Miami (FL), and Kansas State.

Toriscelli, 35, served as Stanford's head athletic trainer during the 1995 and 1996 seasons. During his stay with the Cardinal, he also served as the National Athletic Trainers Association's liaison to the NCAA Football Rules Committee. Prior to his stint with Stanford, Toriscelli served as the head trainer at the University of Miami (FL) from 1993-94, and worked three years in the same position at Kansas State from 1990-92.

A native of Steubenville, Ohio, Toriscelli graduated with a bachelor's in athletic training from Ohio State University in 1984 and received a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis on sports medicine from North Carolina in 1985.

He and his wife, Chris, live in Tampa with their two children, son Shane (6/14/94) and daughter Jenna (9/12/96).

Mark Shermansky
Director of Rehabilitation/ Assistant Trainer

Mark Shermansky joined the Buccaneers staff this past off-season as the team's assistant trainer. In this role he will be responsible for assisting Head Trainer Todd Toriscelli with the treatment and rehabilitation of players.

Prior to joining the Bucs, Shermansky served as the assistant trainer for the University of Miami (FL) football team and head trainer for the Hurricanes' baseball team from 1993-97. In addition, he was the head trainer for the Miami Hooters of the Arena Football League in 1993.

Shermansky, 32, received his bachelor's in sports medicine from Miami in 1987 and earned a master's in movement science from Long Island University in 1990. A Levittown, New York, native, Shermansky resides in Tampa.

Keith Abrams
Assistant Trainer

Keith Abrams joins the Buccaneers training staff this season as assistant trainer. His job responsibilities will entail assisting Head Trainer Todd Toriscelli with the treatment and rehabilitation of players. Abrams comes to the Bucs after spending 1996 and part of '97 working for the Atlanta Braves minor league system as a team trainer.

Abrams completed his undergraduate studies at Kean College of New Jersey, earning a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1994. He is currently in the final stages of finishing up work on a master's degree in kinesiology from San Jose State University (CA). The 27-year-old from Trenton, New Jersey, resides in Tampa.

Kevin Winston
Director of Player Programs

Kevin Winston enters his first season with the Buccaneers as director of player programs. By fulfilling this new position within the organization, Winston serves as the primary contact between the players, coaches, and the community.

Winston's responsibilities include involving players in continuing education programs, off-season internships and jobs that provide insight into possible post-NFL careers. He also is the main liaison between the players and the Bucs' community relations department, and encourages player involvement in charities and community activities.

Before joining the Bucs, Winston worked from 1989-1996 at The Seneca Center for emotionally-challenged adolescents in San Francisco and San Leandro, California. At the Center, he directed the In-Touch Program and the Day Treatment Program for students, served as a crisis management specialist, led crisis intervention teams and coordinated interaction between students and community leaders. He also organized all aspects of the Center's vocational placement program.

Winston graduated from Indiana University in 1988 with a degree in Physical Education. He was recently married to Dana (June 21), and the couple lives in Tampa.

Darin Kerns
Equipment Manager

Darin Kerns was named equipment manager for the Buccaneers on March 22 after nine seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs. In his first season in that role, he will be responsible for outfitting Buccaneer players and coaches, purchasing equipment, and maintaining the team's locker room facilities. Kerns will also handle the transportation of Tampa Bay's equipment for the team's road contests.

Kerns, 29, came to the Bucs from the Kansas City Chiefs where he served as an assistant equipment manager from 1989-97. During his Kansas City tenure, Kerns was selected as a member of the AFC Pro Bowl equipment staff in 1994 and also worked for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in the spring of '96. While a student at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, he served as the school's student manager from 1987-90.

Born in Marshall, Missouri, Kerns graduated from UMKC in 1991 with a degree in physical education. He resides in Tampa with his wife, Julie.

Mark Meschede
Assistant Equipment Manager

Mark Meschede joined Tampa Bay's equipment staff on July, 1 as assistant equipment manager. He will assist Equipment Manager Darin Kerns with the outfitting of players and maintenance of team locker room facilities.

Meschede comes to the Bucs from the Frankfurt Galaxy of the World League where he served as the team's equipment manager from 1995-97. Prior to that, he was an equipment assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs from 1992-94, working alongside Kerns for three years.

A graduate of Missouri Valley College with a bachelor's degree in History, Meschede also received a master's in education from Central Missouri State University in 1996. The 27-year-old Marshall, Missouri native resides in Tampa.

Davy Levy
Video Director

Dave Levy joined the Buccaneers in 1988 as the team's video director. His responsibilities include all videotaping, editing and production for the team. He also oversees the Bucs' game film library and handles film trade-outs with the other NFL clubs. In preparation for each season's NFL draft, Levy's department also aids the personnel department in acquiring, editing and maintaining videotape on draft-eligible players.

Levy was hired by the Bucs after spending two years (1986-87) as an assistant in the Pittsburgh Steelers' video department. He had originally begun volunteering with the Steelers' video staff at the age of 12.

A native of Pittsburgh, the 30-year-old Levy went to high school in nearby Bethel Park. Levy also attended the Community College of Allegheny County, the University of Pittsburgh, and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Kelly, a registered nurse, recently relocated to New Tampa with sons Andrew (4/22/91) and Garrett (9/24/96).

Pat Brazil
Assistant Video Director

Pat Brazil is in his seventh season as Tampa Bay's assistant video director. He assists Video Director Dave Levy in the shooting and duplicating of games and practices while also editing and producing various other tapes for the coaching staff.

The 27-year-old Brazil came to the Buccaneers from the Kansas City Chiefs where he spent four seasons as a video assistant. Brazil's father, Dave, has coached for 38 years, including 12 in the NFL, and is currently a defensive assistant for the New York Giants.

A native of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Brazil graduated from Blue Springs (Mo.) High School and also attended Blue Springs Community College. He and his wife, Dana, live in Lutz.

Joseph Diaco
Team Physician

The 1997 season marks Dr. Joseph Diaco's 19th as the Buccaneers' chief team physician and his 20th year of association with the club overall. Diaco is the former chief of staff at St. Joseph's Hospital in Tampa where he continues to practice general and laparoscopic surgery.

Besides his aforementioned duties, Diaco is also a clinical professor at the University of South Florida. A fellow of the American College of Surgeons, Diaco came to the Tampa Bay area 23 years ago. From 1971-74, he served as the chief of surgery at the Air Force Hospital at Warner Robbins Air Force Base in Georgia. Diaco served his residency in general surgery at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital from 1965-70.

A Tampa resident, Diaco earned his bachelor's degree from Villanova and also graduated from Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital in his native Philadelphia. His twin brother, Nick, is a heart specialist in Los Angeles. Diaco's three sons include Daniel (30) who is a plastic surgeon at USF, Stephen (28) who is a Tampa attorney and Joseph (27) who is also an attorney practicing in Tampa.

William Carson
Orthopedic Consultant

Dr. William Carson is in his 11th season as the Buccaneers' orthopedic consultant. He previously worked in the same capacity for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits from 1984-85. Carson served as a medical consultant for the New York Yankees during spring training in 1996. In past years, Carson has also served as a medical consultant to the University of Tampa basketball team, the Tampa Bay Rowdies soccer team, the Tampa Ballet, and Tampa/Ocala Jai Alai. Currently, he is in private practice in Tampa.

Carson, a Tampa native, also completed fellowships in sports medicine at the Hughston Orthopedic Clinic in Columbus, Georgia (1983) and the Orthopedic and Fracture Clinic in Eugene, Oregon (1982).

The 45-year-old Carson earned his bachelor's degree in chemistry from Emory University. He attended medical school at the University of South Florida and completed his residency at Emory's affiliated hospitals in Atlanta. Carson is board certified by the American Board of Orthopedic Surgery. He and his wife, Maggie, live in Tampa with son Billy (2/14/86) and daughter Kerry (1/3/88).

Administration

Richard McNerney
Vice President, Marketing & Communications

Vice President, Marketing & Communications Richard McNerney joined the club's front office staff on January 21, 1997.

McNerney oversees all aspects of the club's marketing and communications efforts locally, regionally and nationally. He also develops, designs and implements creative marketing promotions that will increase the fans' involvement with the team.

The 37-year-old McNerney comes to the Buccaneers from the ATP Tour, the men's professional tennis circuit, where he was Director of Marketing for the past three years (1994-96). Prior to that, McNerney worked five years with NFL Properties at League headquarters in New York City as a Senior Marketing Manager. There, he worked with domestic corporate sponsors and in the NFL's International Division managing the American Bowl series and World League sponsors.

Before his five-year stint at the League office, McNerney spent two years (1989-90) as a marketing consultant for the Chicago Bears. McNerney received his bachelor's of arts degree from Yale University, and his MBA from Northwestern's Kellogg School in 1990.

Born 11/7/59 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, McNerney and his wife Susan, reside in Tampa with their two children, Graham (9/8/92) and Maggie (11/4/94).

Veronica (Roni) Costello
Vice President, Sales Administration

In an effort to strengthen its ticket and luxury suite sales departments, the Buccaneers added Veronica (Roni) Costello to the organization in January as vice president, sales administration. Costello brings to the Buccaneers a strong background in corporate communications and a tremendous knowledge of the Central Florida region.

Costello will manage the club's ticket sales department including the luxury suites, club seats, group sales, season ticket office, and customer service center. She will also oversee the rebuilding of the club's business relationships with team sponsors, and will develop strategies and programs for the upcoming NFL season.

Costello, a native of Hollywood, Fla., was one of the first senior executive staff members hired by the Glazer family during their restructuring of the front office following the 1996 season, and is one of only four female senior club executives in the NFL.

She comes to the Bucs from Tucker/Hall Incorporated, a Tampa-based corporate communications company where she was senior vice president of public affairs for five years. Her main focus at Tucker/Hall was corporate positioning, grassroots marketing strategies, and government relations.

Prior to that, Costello was vice president of public affairs for Hill and Knowlton Incorporated based in Tampa and Washington, D.C. She gained extensive knowledge and experience of the Tampa Bay market between 1987 and 1990 as District Representative for U.S. Senator Bob Graham.

Costello is a 1978 graduate of Florida State University and a recent participant in the MIT-Harvard Public Disputes Program in Cambridge, MA. Born 5/5/56, Costello and her husband, Harry, live in Tampa. She has two stepsons, Brian (11/27/75) and Mark (3/23/78).

Kevin Brooks
Director of Ticket Operations

Kevin Brooks begins his first season with the Buccaneers as director of ticket operations. Brooks coordinates all of the team's ticket office business, including season ticket and individual game ticket sales. In addition, he oversees the customer service, luxury suite and group sales operations.

Brooks brings to the Buccaneers an extensive background in professional sports ticket operations. Before joining the Bucs, Brooks spent three seasons as director of ticket operations for the Tampa Bay Lightning. During his final season with the NHL team, he assumed a dual role as director of ticket operations for both the Ice Palace and the Lightning. Additionally, Brooks was the assistant ticket manager for the San Diego Chargers from 1981-88 and took on the same duties for the San Diego Sports Arena from 1990-94.

Originally from San Diego, Brooks graduated from San Diego State University in 1982 with a bachelor's degree in journalism. The 39-year old is single and lives in Tampa.

Meredith Chimerine
Director of Special Events

Tampa Bay's newly-formed special events department is directed by Meredith Chimerine, who handles the club's game-day-related entertainment, non-game-day team events, and manages the club's special events throughout the Tampa Bay community. Chimerine will also serve as the team's liaison with the Tampa Sports Authority and for all other stadium related issues.

Chimerine, 27, spent the previous four years at Regency Productions/PGI in Chicago as an event producer. One of the nation's premier event management companies, Regency/PGI's clients include the NFL, the NBA, the PGA of America, and the ATP Tour. Among her direct responsibilities at Regency/PGI were management of the NBA's Jam Session held at the league's All-Star Weekend, and the direction of the ATP Tour's Smash Tennis, the touring grassroots youth festival.

Prior to her stint at Regency/PGI, Chimerine spent two years at the Law and Economics Consulting Group in Washington, D.C., as a research analyst.

Chimerine, a native of New York who was born March 6, 1970, received her degree in business economics/organizational behavior and management from Brown University in 1992.

Reggie Roberts
Director of Communications

Reggie Roberts begins his first season as director of communications for the Bucs. Roberts comes to Tampa Bay from the NFL's New York headquarters where he was the National Football Conference Director of Information since 1990.

During seven seasons with the League office, Roberts was the public relations director and primary league office contact for the 15 NFC teams. He coordinated media operations at seven NFC Championship Games, seven Super Bowls (XXV-XXXI), and three Tokyo American Bowls in Tokyo, Japan.

With the Bucs, Roberts is responsible for coordinating all media coverage and publicity for the team. He is the club liaison between local, national, and international media, and the primary club contact with the television networks that broadcast Buccaneer games.

Before joining the NFL in 1990, Roberts spent four-and-a-half years as a sports-writer with the Austin American-Statesman in Austin, Texas where he won two national Associated Press Sports Editor awards and one Texas Associated Press Sports Editor award.

Roberts, a native of Alexandria, Louisiana, earned his bachelor's of science degree in journalism from Northeast Louisiana University in 1986. He recently married Wendy Weaver (July 19), and the couple resides in Tampa.

George Woods
Director of Marketing

George Woods joined the Buccaneers in May after spending nearly 10 years at Anheuser-Busch.

Woods, 34, is in charge of developing sponsorship packages for the club's corporate partners and oversees the team's advertising campaign.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Woods spent nine and a half years in marketing and media planning with Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., in Atlanta and St. Louis. His previous position with Anheuser-Busch involved implementing national and local promotions as well as developing marketing objectives and strategies for Budweiser.

Woods is a graduate of the University of Florida with a degree in advertising and a minor in marketing. The Lakeland native is married to Jennifer, his high school sweetheart. They are the parents of three children: Alexis (4/26/91), Lindsey (1/6/94), and Lloyd (12/29/95).

The Buccaneers' New Look for 1997

The Buccaneers unveiled the first uniform and logo changes in the team's 22-year history this past off-season. The club will begin play this season in new uniforms featuring primary colors of red and pewter with secondary hues of black and orange. The logo consists of a skull and crossed swords on a blood red, wind-swept flag and is displayed on a pewter-colored helmet.

The design of the logo and uniform, a collaborative effort between the Buccaneers and NFL Properties, included input from fans through the use of focus groups and kept actual buccaneer history in mind. The result is a powerful design and one that is uniquely suited to the Tampa Bay region.

The buccaneers of the early 16th century were comprised of illegal Caribbean settlers who made their original trade through curing and selling smoked meats and hides. However, the lure of plundering incoming trading vessels proved to be too much, as the settlers began ransacking trading vessels carrying food and jewelry.

The lawless pirates also popularized the cutlass; a long, curved sword originally used in the boucan process (the name given to the meat-curing methods the group adopted). However, the symbol most widely associated with the buccaneers was the Jolly Roger a menacing flag with a skull emblem on a typically red background. The raising of the Jolly Roger signaled the impending attack on an opposing ship.

The evolution of the buccaneers in the Caribbean provided much of the inspiration for the team's new look. Buccaneer flags often bore images of skulls and swords and were meant to intimidate their unsuspecting victims into surrendering with as little resistance as possible.

PRO: Former 1,000-yard rusher who proved to be a valuable weapon in Buccaneers' 1996 backfield after August waiver claim from Washington...Re-signed with Bucs in January after splitting starting RB duties with Errict Rhett and Jerry Ellison...Owns two of the four longest runs in Washington history and the eighth-longest (tied) in Buccaneer annals...Career totals include 437 carries for 1,726 yards and seven touchdowns plus 37 receptions for 267 yards.

1996: Joined the Bucs off waivers from Washington on 8/22 and appeared in 11 games with four starts...Led the Bucs in rushing in six of the team's first seven games...Came off bench as sub for Ellison in first two games but was featured back in 9/15 contest at Denver (did not start in two-TE set) and responded with season-high 114 yards and one touchdown on 15 carries (7.6 avg.)...Denver effort included runs of 56 (tied for eighth-longest in team history) and 31 yards and was Bucs' only 100-yard rushing game of '96...In first start for Bucs, vs. Seattle (9/22) scampered for 65 yards on 26 carries, scoring once on a two-yard carry and setting up a Buc field goal with a 13-yard jaunt...Also started vs. Detroit (9/29), Minnesota (10/13) and Green Bay (10/27)...Saw limited action over Bucs' last eight games as he did not play in three games and was inactive on two other occasions.

1995: Got into only one Washington game as a reserve behind RB Terry Allen...Carried twice for a loss of two yards in the fourth quarter at Philadelphia (10/8/95)...Was inactive for eight games and did not see action in seven others.

1994: Saw action in 13 games for the Redskins and was a starter in five, compiling 297 yards and two touchdowns on 100 carries...Also snared 13 passes for 68 yards...Was slowed in the early going by a pre-season hamstring injury...Still managed highest single-game rushing total by a Redskin in '94, carrying 32 times for 92 yards vs. New Orleans (9/11) and adding a 16-yard reception...A pulled rib-cage muscle contributed to less mid-season playing time, but he came back to record 50 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries in the season finale vs. the L.A. Rams (12/24).

1993: Became the first Redskin rookie to rush for 1,000 yards and the first to lead the team in rushing since Mike Thomas in 1975...Finished sixth in the NFC with 1,063 rushing yards, averaging 4.8 yards per carry on 223 totes...Also added 21 receptions for 186 yards...Scored three rushing TDs, including the two longest runs of the season in the NFL, becoming the first player to manage that feat since Bo Jackson in 1989...First long carry came at Philadelphia (9/19), an 85-yard TD run that highlighted a 22-carry, 154-yard outing...Followed with 78-yard scamper at Tampa Bay (12/5) that ranks as the second-longest carry ever by a Buccaneer opponent...Finished game vs. Bucs with 128 yards on 20 carries...Also hit triple digits with 117 yards on 24 carries at Buffalo (11/1) and 105 yards on 21 carries vs. Indianapolis (11/7).

COLLEGE: Emerged as one of the nation's top runners at Notre Dame despite switching back and forth between offense and defense as a collegian...Played tailback as a senior and was a reserve at that spot during junior campaign after manning cornerback slot as a sophomore...After switching back to offense for senior campaign, recorded one of the finest seasons by a running back in Notre Dame's star-studded history...Finished seventh in the nation with 122.9 rushing yards per game, compiling 1,343 yards and 13 touchdowns on just 167 carries...Averaged 8.0 yards per carry, just below the Fighting Irish record of 8.1 posted by the legendary George Gipp (1920)...Amassed the third-highest rushing yardage total in school history...Rolled to 227 yards and three TDs vs. USC...Trio of scores came from 63, 20 and 80 yards out against Purdue during 205-yard outing...As a junior, stood out on special teams and served as a reserve running back...Gained 122 yards and scored twice on 18 carries...Played in all 11 games, providing top moment against Pittsburgh as he blocked a punt and recovered it in the end zone for an Irish TD...Switched to CB for sophomore season and got into seven games, starting three...Recorded 28 tackles, one interception and one pass defensed...Preserved season-opening win against Michigan with interception inside Notre Dame territory with 1:21 left to play...Reserve RB and special-teamer during freshman year...Gained 43 yards on 13 carries...Majored in management in the College of Business Administration.

PERSONAL: Married to Christina, the couple has two children, son Austyn (7/18/94) and daughter Aespyne (3/20/96)...The family recently relocated to Tampa...Earned three letters as a tailback, fullback and cornerback at Washington High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma...Also lettered four times in track as a sprinter and was a three-time all-state choice in the 100 and 200 meters...His uncle, Tony Peters, played with the Washington Redskins as a safety from 1979-85...Reggie was a college teammate with his older brother, Tony, for three years at Notre Dame...Full name is Reginald Arthur Brooks, born January 19, 1971 in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

PRO: Expected to compete for starting right guard spot this season...Hard worker with versatility to play both guard positions on the offensive line...Earned roster spot last year with solid pre-season performance after signing with Tampa Bay as an undrafted college free agent out of Texas A&M-Kingsville...Went on to become primary substitute for oft-injured Buccaneer offensive linemen.

1996: Participated in 11 games, starting five at LG and one at RG...Saw first career action at LG in 9/22 contest versus Seattle after filling in for injured starter Jim Pyne for most of the second half...Opened first career game against Detroit (9/29) when Pyne was sidelined by a neck injury and played entire game at LG...Entered Arizona (10/20) contest after Bucs' first possession when Pyne suffered an ankle injury and started the next three games against Green Bay (10/27), Chicago (11/3) and Oakland (11/10)...Versus Chicago, aided offensive line in allowing just one sack of QB Trent Dilfer...In Oakland contest, helped pave the way for 162-yard rushing output (second-best of season) by Buccaneer RBs...Started only game at RG in season's 15th week against Minnesota (12/15), filling in for an injured Ian Beckles...In season finale vs. Chicago once again took over for an injured Pyne making sixth start of season (fifth at LG) and allowing just one sack of Dilfer in Bucs' 34-19 victory.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons for Texas A&M-Kingsville after transferring from Kilgore (TX) Junior College (was a two-time All-America and all-conference selection)...A key contributor to Javelinas' offensive unit that averaged 286 rushing yards and 5.7 yards per carry in 1995...Credited with 77 knockdown blocks as a senior...One of five members of the Javelinas' offensive line to earn All-Lone Star Conference recognition...Moved into the starting lineup early in junior season...Helped the Javelinas average 283.2 yards per game.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Tampa...Chosen All-District and All-Conference in football while attending Katy (TX) High School...Is Buccaneers' only Spanish-speaking player...Full name is Jorge Armando Diaz, born November 15, 1973 in New York City, New York.

PRO: Enjoyed breakthrough season, showing enormous potential as the year progressed...Strong arm and accurate passing skills provided tools for best season of career...Has developed into one of the league's most durable QBs, having the fifth-longest starting streak in the NFL...Enters 1997 needing to add just 29 more passing yards to his career total of 6,066 to surpass Craig Erickson's (6,094) fourth place rank on the Buccaneers' all-time passing list.

1996: Served as the Bucs' starting quarterback and played nearly every down of the season...Joined Doug Williams (1979-81) as only Tampa Bay QBs ever to start all 16 games in back-to-back seasons...After a slow start and a 35.6 passer rating through the first five games of the year, showed drastic improvement during games six-16, more than doubling his rating to a 77.5...Recorded career highs in pass attempts (482), completions (267), passing yards (2,859), completion percentage (55.4), touchdowns (12), passer rating (64.8) and rushing yards (124)...Finished the season ranked fourth in Buccaneer history in both career attempts (979) and completions (529)...267 completions were second highest season total in team history (308, Steve DeBerg, 1984)...Came up with strong performance during home win over Minnesota (10/13), completing 22 of 35 attempts for 218 yards and a season and career-high three TD passes...During following week's contest at Arizona, again completed 22 of 35 passes for 229 yards, marking second consecutive week with no interceptions, a first since 11/19-11/26/95...In OT triumph over Oakland (11/10), boasted 69 percent completion rate and led Bucs to their first opening series score of the year by hitting five of first six attempts...Set up overtime battle with Raiders with a 14-play, 73-yard fourth-quarter drive that ended with a two-yard pass to FB Mike Alstott to tie the game...Came up with best performance of year in victory at San Diego (11/17) with season best in attempts (40) and completion percentage (75.0), while recording season and personal bests in completions (30) and yards (327)...Against Chargers, came within one completion of tying club record of 31 set by Vinny Testaverde against Houston (12/10/89) and led the team to three scores with five drives of 50+ yards...In home victory over New Orleans (11/24), threw for 253 yards (fourth best of career) and ran for 21 yards (third best of career)...Recovered from a finger injury to lead Bucs to a triumph over Washington (12/8) by completing eight of 15 passes for 112 yards...Also showed running skills vs. Redskins, rushing four times for 27 yards, including a 19 yard dash.

1995: Started all 16 games for Bucs, thus becoming first Tampa Bay quarterback to accomplish that since Doug Williams in 1981...Completed 224 of 415 passes (54.0%) for 2,774 yards with four TDs and 18 interceptions...Had QB rating of 60.1...Also ranked third on team with 115 rushing yards on 23 carries with two touchdowns...Broke

Williams' 1982 record by throwing 138 consecutive passes without an interception (9/24-10/29, 5 games)... Got first win as a starter by completing 11 of 19 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and an interception, including 64-yarder to WR Horace Copeland in 21-6 victory at Philadelphia (9/3)...Had third-highest passing yardage total of career with 255 (on 20 of 36) in loss at Cleveland (9/10)...In 14-6 win over Washington (9/24), hit 13 of 18 passes...This 72.2% completion rate marked fourth-best in career...In 20-13 win at Carolina (10/1), was replaced by Casey Weldon in second quarter after suffering concussion on hit by LB Carlton Bailey and DE Mike Fox...Keyed team's fourth straight win, a OT victory over Vikings (10/15), by connecting on 24 of 37 passes for 249 yards with no pickoffs...Scored first NFL touchdown on 21-yard run in loss at Houston (10/29)...Enjoyed performance at Green Bay (11/26) by racking up career best attempts (48) while adding season-high 312 yards and 27 completions...Posted first NFL 300-yard game and first by a Buccaneer in 26 games (Craig Erickson's 313 vs. Colts 9/11/94)...Helped engineer nationally-televised OT upset of Green Bay (12/10) by hooking up on 23 of 42 throws for 240 yards.

1994: As a rookie, played in five games with two starts...Did not play in 10 games and was inactive for one (at Lions 11/13)...Completed 38 of 82 passes (46.3%) for 433 yards with one TD and six interceptions...Also was credited with two rushes for 27 yards...Saw first regular season action in fourth quarter relief of Craig Erickson in loss at Green Bay (9/25)...Completed five of 10 passes for 73 yards in that Packer contest...Also saw extensive action at Atlanta (10/9), connecting on six of 11 throws for 81 yards but had three interceptions...Got first NFL start in loss at San Francisco (10/23) and completed seven of 23 passes for 45 yards with one pickoff...Again relieved Erickson in following week's loss to Vikings (10/30) and was accurate on seven of 13 tosses for 75 yards with one TD and one interception...In loss to Bears (11/6), got second start (first at then-Tampa Stadium) and completed 13 of 25 passes for 159 yards with a long completion of 42 yards...Was inactive for Lions game after suffering rib cage injury in practice...Did not take a snap in any of the season's final seven games...Drafted by Buccaneers in first round (sixth overall) in 1994...Declared for the draft with one season of eligibility remaining and was highest drafted player in Fresno State history (CB J.D. Williams was 16th pick by Buffalo in 1990).

COLLEGE: Enjoyed outstanding three-year career at Fresno State...Career statistics included 461 completions in 774 attempts (59.6%) for 6,944 yards, 51 TDs and 21 interceptions...Also rushed 140 times for 195 yards and eight scores...In two bowl games, added 50 completions in 9[illegible] throws (54.9%) for 687 yards, two TDs and one pickoff...Ended Bulldog career third on all-time passing yards list behind Kevin Sweeney's 10,808 and Mark Barsotti's 8,093...TD passes trailed only Sweeney's 69...Was 20-9 as a starter as team won or shared conference title in all three seasons...In junior season, was AP and Football News Third Team All-America while also being a consensus First Team All-Western Athletic Conference choice and that conference's Offensive Player of the Year...Finished ninth in Heisman Trophy balloting...Completed 217 of 333 passes (65.2%) for school record 3,276 yards with an incredible 7-to-1 TD to interception ratio (FSU record 28 TDs, 4 int.)...Led the nation with a 173.1 passing efficiency which was the third highest in NCAA history (Jim McMahon's 176.9 in 1980, Ty Detmer's 175.6 in 1989)...Also set an NCAA record with 271 consecutive passes without an interception (almost ten full games), shattering Matt Blundin's (Virginia, 1991) previous mark of 224...Added 47 attempts without a 'pick' counting bowl game, bringing total to 318 (24 TDs during that span)...Helped Fresno State finish third in nation with 533.0 yards and 39.7 points per game...In sophomore campaign, became just third WAC QB to earn All-America honors, joining McMahon (1978) and Detmer (1989)...For season, connected on 175 of 332 passes (52.7%) for 2,836 yards, 21 TDs and 14 interceptions...Led Bulldog attack that ranked second in nation in total offense (482.6 per game) and first in scoring (40.5)...In NCAA, finished fifth in TD passes and ninth in passing efficiency (136.9)...Began freshman season as a reserve before starting final four games and helping club earn berth in California Raisin Bowl...Totals included 69 completions in 109 attempts (63.3%) for 832 yards, two TDs and three interceptions...Also rushed for 177 yards on 31 attempts (5.7 avg.) with five touchdowns...Was redshirted as incoming freshman in 1990...Majored in speech communications.

FIRST DRAFTS

The Buccaneers current roster contains nine players who were selected by Tampa Bay as first-round draft picks, including seven in the last four years alone: QB Trent Dilfer (1994); DT Warren Sapp and LB Derrick Brooks (1995); DE Regan Upshaw and DT Marcus Jones (1996); RB Warrick Dunn and WR Reidel Anthony (1997). No other team in the NFL has made as many selections in the first round over the last four years. Dunn and Anthony, who enter 1997 with expectations of significant playing time, will be looking to join their fellow first-rounders as starters in the Bucs' lineup: those five players started a combined 65 games for Tampa Bay last year.

PRO: Athletic cornerback who has played in all 16 games for eight of nine seasons in the league...Displayed remarkable determination in '96 by producing another solid season while coping with wife Francine's life-threatening battle with leukemia...Received Buccaneers' Ed Block Courage Award in 1996, an honor given to the one player on every NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage.

1996: Started season at RCB and played primarily at that position and at nickel back throughout the year...For first six games, started and played almost every defensive down at RCB and also saw limited action on special teams...Tied for third on team in interceptions with two...Tied for second among DBs in passes defensed with nine, ending his seven-year streak of breaking up at least 10 passes a season...Had season-high six tackles in home win over Minnesota (10/13), also batting away one pass and playing on special teams...Missed first start of season in loss at Arizona (10/20), but still recorded two tackles and a pass defensed as a sub for CB Donnie Abraham...Continued to sub at CB for remainder of season...Made big plays during victory at San Diego (11/17), registering one solo tackle, season-high two passes defensed and first interception of season...Intercepted second pass of season in game at Minnesota (12/15), a pick-off that ended a Vikings scoring drive on the Bucs' eight-yard line.

1995: Was Bucs' starter for all 16 games at RCB, one of three defensive players to start every contest...Ranked third (1st among DBs) on team with career-best 77 tackles (63, 14) to go with one interception, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and one special teams tackle...Led team with 17 passes defensed which matched personal-best in 1991...In win over Washington (9/24), left game on stretcher in fourth quarter after suffering jammed neck and concussion in collision with teammate Barney Bussey...Made a key play in triumph at Carolina (10/1) by stripping RB Derrick Moore of ball at the Bucs' two-yard line (recovered by Bussey)...In besting of Bengals (10/8), was involved in three turnovers, recovering RB James Joseph's fumble at Tampa Bay's 30-yard line, grabbing only interception of season on QB Jeff Blake pass and recovering Blake fumble on Cincinnati 40 that set up winning FG.

1994: Signed with Bucs as free agent (5/23)...Joined DE Chidi Ahanotu and CB Martin Mayhew as only three defensive players to start all 16 games...Played more defensive snaps than any other Buccaneer...Won Bucs' starting RCB job in training camp...Finished seventh on team with 60 tackles (54, 6) while adding two special teams solos...Also contributed an interception, a fumble recovery and a team-best 14 passes defensed...Notched only interception of season off Jeff George pass in loss at Atlanta (10/9).

PRO: Strong, unfailing veteran who served as Buccaneers' starting left tackle for ninth consecutive season...Played in and started 13 games, missing three early-season contests due to a knee injury...These absences contributed to his remarkably small total of four games missed due to injury in nine years as a professional...A durable anchor for Tampa Bay's offensive line, holds the Buccaneers' record for most games played (135), beating Richard Wood's 132, as well as most games started (135), 18 more than Lee Roy Selmon's 117...Is only Buccaneer with at least 75 games played to start every contest he's appeared in...Remains important part of Bucs' starting unit after signing three-year contract during the past off-season.

1996: Enjoyed another outstanding season, building on career-long streak of starting every NFL game in which he's played...Did not miss a snap in seven of 13 games played/started...Key part of offensive line that finished the year ranked 12th in the NFL in quarterback sacks allowed (30) and allowed one or fewer QB sacks per game eight times...Played majority of game at Detroit (9/8) before leaving during fourth quarter with a sprained ligament in right knee...Injury prevented him from playing vs. Denver (9/15), Seattle (9/22) and Detroit (9/29), accounting for three out of four games missed in nine-year career...Absence at Denver marked end of 41-game successive starts streak...Returned full-force from injury in home victory over Minnesota (10/13) for only game that featured the Bucs' full expected starting offensive line...Provided support that opened doors for Buc running backs to rush for 162 yards in OT edging of Oakland (11/10)...In 11/17 win at San Diego, helped Bucs' offense gain season-best 423 total yards...Started 133rd game at LT in victory over Washington (12/8), passing Richard Wood's Buccaneer career record of 132 games played...Also vs. Redskins, enabled Buccaneer running backs to rush for a season-best 209 yards.

1995: For seventh time in nine-year career, started all 16 games at LT...Despite playing with shoulder injury, was only offensive or defensive player on roster who did not miss a snap...Helped Bucs average 4.0 yards per rush, the third-best mark in team history...Also was major factor in Errict Rhett becoming only second Buccaneer to rush for back-to-back 1000-yard seasons...Team set club record with 19 rushing touchdowns which tied for third best in NFL...In loss at Green Bay (11/26), provided added significance to return to home state of Wisconsin by starting 118th career game to break Lee Roy Selmon's team record...Part of offensive line that provided blocking when Bucs set team record with 9.0-yard rushing average (16/144) in season finale versus Detroit (12/23).

1994: Was one of seven Bucs (four offensive linemen) to start all 16 games (all at LT)...Enjoyed another standout season and was voted team's Most Valuable Player by area media...Only missed offensive snaps of season came after uncharacteristic ejection from Chicago game (11/6) for altercation with Alonzo Spellman...That marked first personal foul or ejection of college or pro career...For season, permitted just one sack and was flagged for holding on just one occasion...Helped Bucs allow a league-low two sacks in season's final six games...Part of offensive line quintet that started last 10 contests together which was first time that had occurred for Bucs in 15 years...With start in loss at Detroit (11/13), became first player in Buccaneer annals to start first 100 games of career...Bucs had three straight games without permitting a sack for first time since 1979 (vs. Seahawks 11/20, Vikings 11/27, Redskins 12/4).

1993: Started 10 games at LT for Buccaneers...Missed season's first five contests, which snapped streak of 80 straight starts, due to contract holdout (signed 10/20)...Started against Green Bay (10/24) just four days after signing...Left Packer game after 12 offensive snaps, thus ending incredible streak of 4,862 consecutive plays (five-plus seasons while under contract) which had begun with first play of rookie season...Did not play against San Francisco (11/14) due to a groin injury, thus signaling first missed game (or play) due to injury in NFL career.

1992: Started all 16 matches for Tampa Bay while not missing a single offensive play...Allowed just 3.5 sacks all season...Honors included AP second team All-Pro and NEA first team All-Pro...Was only lineman to stay in game when, for season's first three contests, team utilized a two-line platoon.

1991: Was team's starter at LT for all 16 games while not missing any offensive plays.

1990: As usual, started in every game at left tackle without missing a snap...Honors included Football News first team All-NFC, and second team All-Pro by The National and College and Pro Football Newsweekly...Partially blocked a FG attempt by Minnesota's Donald Igwebuike in overtime to help Bucs win 23-20 (9/30)...Had amazing streak of 35 games without a holding penalty (last one allowed vs. Colts 10/16/88) snapped against Saints (11/11).

1989: Started all 16 games at LT, did not miss an offensive snap and was not flagged for holding in team's 1,025 offensive plays...Post-season recognition included first team All-NFC from UPI and All-Pro honors from the New York Daily News.

1988: Despite not signing until three weeks into training camp (8/7), was impressive enough to become first rookie left tackle starter in team history...Started all 16 games and was a first team All-Rookie selection by Pro Football Weekly...Helped team improve rushing attack by over 18 yards per game...Drafted by Buccaneers in first round (4th overall, 1st offensive lineman) in 1988.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed standout four-year career at Wisconsin, starting 32 of 33 games...As a senior co-captain, was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News and NEA, and was also an All-Big Ten selection...Was voted Badgers' MVP...Helped Wisconsin average 202.5 rushing yards per game...Recovered fumble in end zone for a TD in game with Illinois...Was UPI second-team All-Big Ten as a junior while starting 12 games at LT...Twice was named team's Player of the Week including game against Indiana when Badgers rolled up 285 rushing yards and 441 total yards...In sophomore season, was named AP and UPI Honorable Mention All-Big Ten...Was also cited as team's Most Improved Player...Started first 10 games before missing Michigan State match due to leg injury...Played in all 12 games as a freshman...Was redshirted as a 1983 incoming freshman...Holds B.A. in communications.

PERSONAL: Married to Brenda, couple resides in Tampa with sons Blake (6/4/89) and Chase (1/3/91), and daughter Ashlyn (7/20/94)...Is actively involved with Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Metropolitan Ministries, Athletes in Action and also directs a football camp for the Police Athletic League...Hobbies include spending time with family and both water and snowskiing...Attended Sauk Prairie High School in Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, lettering in football, basketball and track...Full name is Paul Blake Gruber, born February 24, 1965 in Madison, Wisconsin.

PRO: Quick and skillful receiver who is considered one of NFL's finest pass-catching tight ends...Finished 1996 with 118 total catches for 1,437 yards as a Buccaneer, passing Calvin Magee for third place on Buc tight end's all-time receptions and receiving yardage list...Has been Buccaneers' starting TE since signing with the team in 1994...Overall NFL career marks include 251 catches for 3,057 yards and 14 TDs.

1996: Despite suffering various injuries throughout the year, had strong season as seventh-year NFL veteran, playing in 13 games and starting 12...Missed all of three and most of two other mid-season games due to a pair of injuries (neck and knee) but finished fourth among Buc receivers with 30 catches for 349 yards and a touchdown...As starting TE at Detroit (9/8), caught four passes for 31 yards...Had outstanding performance during nationally televised game at Denver (9/15), catching season-high five passes for team-best 96 yards, just four yards shy of fourth career 100-yard receiving game...Came up with the game's second longest reception and his season best (36 yards) on a third-and-19 play against the Broncos...During 9/22 bout with Seattle, suffered a cervical strain on second offensive play of the game...Missed first start of season in loss to Detroit (9/29)...Subbed at TE vs. the Lions and caught one pass for seven yards before leaving game in fourth quarter due to re-aggravation of cervical strain...Made strong recovery from injury, starting in home win over Minnesota (10/13) and tying for team lead in receptions with five...At Arizona (10/20), sustained knee sprain causing him to miss remainder of Cardinal contest and games against Green Bay (10/27), Chicago (11/3) and Oakland (11/10)...In home victory over New Orleans

(11/24), brought in four passes for 63 yards, including a 13-yard catch on fourth-and-one that set up the Bucs' first field goal attempt...Had another strong game the following week at Carolina (12/1), catching four passes for 52 yards...Recorded first touchdown of 1996 on a 22-yard pass in home win over Washington (12/8)...Also scored a two-point conversion vs. the Redskins, the second of his career.

1995: Enjoyed best statistical season of career while starting all 16 games for first time...Posted career bests in receptions (62) and receiving yards (751), both numbers that led the team...Shattered Jimmie Giles' and Calvin Magee's previous team record for catches by a TE (45)...Catch total tied for fourth best in team annals...Narrowly missed Giles' 1981 club mark for TE receiving yards (786)...Led all NFC TEs in receiving yards and tied Dallas' Jay Novacek for receptions among conference tight ends...Two 100-yard games were most by a Tampa Bay tight end in ten years (Giles' three in 1985)...At Cleveland (9/10), was team's Player of the Game with game-high eight grabs for 95 yards...In triumph at Carolina (10/1), had most prolific day by a Buccaneer TE in seven years with 108 yards on five receptions (Ron Hall's 121 vs. Colts 10/16/88)...Suffered second-quarter ankle sprain in edging of Jacksonville (11/19) and did not return to game...In loss at Green Bay (11/26), established new Buccaneer single-game record for receptions by a TE with 10, surpassing Hall and Magee's previous total of eight...122 receiving yards in that game was second best of career (128 vs. Broncos 10/10/93) and marked third 100-yard effort of NFL tenure.

1994: Joined Tampa Bay as a restricted free agent...Signed Buccaneer offer sheet (6/15) and officially joined club after Packers decided not to match (6/22)...Started nine games at TE in injury-plagued season...Finished with 26 receptions for 337 yards (13.0 avg.) and three touchdowns...Led team in catches in three of first six games...In victory over Colts (9/11), caught four passes for season-best 96 yards including a 48-yard touchdown...Got Tampa Bay's only TD on 10-yard toss in loss to New Orleans (9/18)...In victory over Detroit (10/2), left game with knee soreness, but x-rays and subsequent MRI proved negative...Racked up season-high six catches for 58 yards and had team's only touchdown (11 yds.) at Atlanta (10/9)...Scored two-point conversion on pass from QB Craig Erickson as Bucs lost at San Francisco (10/23)...Suffered shoulder subluxation against Bears (11/6) and was on inactive list for next two games...Was eventually placed on injured reserve for remainder of season on same day of surgery (11/22)...Ranked second among NFC TEs in receptions at time of injury.

1993: For Packers, played and started 12 games, ending up with career bests in average per-catch (14.4) and touchdowns (4) while catching 42 balls for 604 yards...Had five receptions for 92 yards in season-opener against Rams (9/5)...Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after perhaps best game of career in win over Denver (10/10) with five grabs for career-high 128 yards including a personal-best 66-yarder (TD) that was longest reception by a Packer all season...That yardage total was tops among tight ends in Green Bay annals...Had 51-yard reception in triumph over Tampa Bay (10/24)...Underwent arthroscopic surgery on knee (11/18) and missed next two games...Caught season-high six balls for 72 yards in loss at Chicago (12/5)...Missed regular season's final two games plus both playoff contests due to knee injury.

1992: Participated in all 16 contests with 11 starts at TE...Was Gannett first team All-Pro...Posted 55 catches (second on team) for 595 yards (10.8 avg.) and pair of TDs...Receptions total fell one short of Paul Coffman's team mark for TEs of 56 and ranked second among all NFL tight ends in '92 (Dallas' Jay Novacek had 68)...Along with WR Sterling Sharpe, combined for 2,056 yards, most by any NFL duo...Played first five games as backup to Ed West before assuming starting role against Browns (10/18)...Against Giants (11/8), had 87 yards on nine catches which also tied team standard for tight ends (Coffman vs. Buccaneers, 10/12/80)...In edging of Eagles (11/15), totaled eight snags for 98 yards...Had game-winning touchdown catch (9 yds.) in fourth quarter of besting of Bucs (11/29).

1991: Played in 16 games with six starts, contributing 24 receptions for 264 yards (11.0 avg.) and three TDs...All six starts came when team opened game in two-tight end formation...Also finished second behind Roland Mitchell with 14 special teams tackles (11, 3)...Had season-high four receptions versus both Rams (9/29) and Falcons (12/1)...Got first NFL touchdown in game with Bills (11/10)...All three scores came on one-yard receptions (vs. Bills 11/10, vs. Vikings 11/17, vs. Bears 12/8).

1990: As a Green Bay rookie, appeared in all 16 contests with three starts (all in two-TE alignment) and produced 12 catches for 157 yards (13.1 avg.)...Led team in special teams tackles with 22 (16, 6)...Top receiving game came against Seahawks (12/9) with three catches for 43 yards...Drafted by Packers in fourth round (102nd overall) in 1990.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons at Northeast Louisiana, compiling 147 receptions for 2107 yards (14.3 avg.) and 14 touchdowns...Added 22 catches for 383 yards (17.4 avg.) in post-season play...Saw action at both TE and WR...Holds school's all-time receptions record, bettering previous mark by 30...Quarterback for portion of career was current San Diego Charger Stan Humphries...In senior season, earned Kodak first-team All-America honors and was also a first-team All-Southland Conference choice...Led the team and ranked second in the conference with career-best 54 catches for 661 yards and personal-high seven touchdowns...Was conference's Offensive Player of the Week against McNeese State with 11 grabs (third-best in school history) for 104 yards and game-winning 37-yard TD...Due to knee injury, missed five games in junior season, but still led conference with 43 grabs for 512 yards (11.9 avg.) and pair of scores...Suffered partially torn knee ligament in season-opener against Nicholls State before returning for season's seventh game...Produced outstanding effort in 24-3 win over Lamar by setting school and Southland records with 16 receptions for 166 yards...As a sophomore, totaled 37 receptions for 709 yards with three TDs and was a second-team All-SLC pick...Added 22 catches for 383 yards (17.4 avg.) and pair of scores in four playoff games...In 33-31 victory over Northwestern Louisiana, caught 48-yard game-winning TD pass from Humphries that, incredibly, was tipped by four defenders...In 33-32 playoff win over Eastern Kentucky, grabbed seven passes for 153 yards and a TD...As a true freshman, caught 13 balls for 225 yards (17.3 avg.)...Majored in criminal justice.

PRO: Accomplished veteran linebacker and former Pro Bowler expected to assume starting LLB duties after signing with Bucs on 3/21...Originally a college free agent entry into NFL, made first impact as a special teamer before emerging as a prolific pass-rusher...Owns career total of 40.5 sacks, including 37.5 as a Seattle Seahawk (1988-94), fifth-most in team history...After signing with New Orleans as unrestricted free agent in 1995, took over starting LLB role after manning RLB slot for Seattle...Career totals also include 456 tackles (355, 101), 15 forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries, three interceptions, 27 passes defensed and 36 special teams tackles...Earned Pro Bowl berths after first two NFL seasons as AFC's special teams representative.

1996: Played in 13 games and started nine at LLB for New Orleans despite battling early-season ankle injury and late-season broken hand...Posted 43 tackles (34, 9) and added one stop on special teams...Opened season as starting LLB and recorded eight tackles in first two games before sustaining sprained ankle on first play of contest at Cincinnati (9/15)...Missed remainder of Bengals outing and next three games but moved directly back into starting lineup upon return vs. Chicago (10/13)...Tallied five solo tackles vs. San Francisco (11/3) despite incurring broken hand...Started vs. Houston (11/10) and played with cast to protect broken hand, posting five tackles...Saw limited action in next four games...Came back to starting lineup for season's final two games.

1995: Started 12 times for Saints among 13 games played, 11 at LLB and one at DE...Hampered during the first half of the season by groin injury suffered in training camp...Was inactive for three games and missed most of two others during season's first six weeks...Ranked sixth on Saints' defense with 60 tackles (48, 12) and added three sacks, seven passes defensed, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery...In 100th career game, at St. Louis (9/10), recorded first sack as a Saint...Finished season with strong performance at N.Y. Jets (12/24), registering seven tackles and a sack.

1994: In final season with Seahawks, started 15 of 16 games at RLB and saw action at RDE in passing situations...Pitched in with 75 tackles (61, 14), 1.5 sacks and six passes defensed...Missed only start at San Diego (10/30), playing only on special teams after suffering hip pointer previous week at Kansas City (10/23)...Returned third career interception 33 yards vs. Pittsburgh (9/25) to set up Seattle field goal...Registered 1.5 sacks among seven tackles vs. Raiders (12/18).

1993: Started five games at RLB and one at RDE but was in the lineup for just seven contests due to a pair of injuries...Missed two of first three games with hamstring ailment, then spent final seven weeks on injured reserve after suffering torn Achilles' tendon...Still pitched in with 21 tackles, one sack and two passes defensed...His interception on first play at Denver (10/31) set up Seattle's first TD...Started at RDE vs. Houston (11/7) but sustained season-ending Achilles' tendon injury.

1992: Started 16 games at ROLB and was one of Seahawks' most productive defenders with career-best 90 tackles (68, 22) and 9.5 sacks...Also managed to bat away four passes and force two fumbles...Started season strong with nine-stop effort at Kansas City (9/13) that included two sacks and a forced fumble...Revisited that effort with another two-sack outing vs. Kansas City in 11/22 rematch...Also stung Philadelphia (12/13) with 2.5 sacks and eight tackles.

1991: Played in and started 15 games at ROLB for Seattle, missing only the Atlanta contest (12/15) due to shoulder injury...Led team with 10 sacks and ranked third among Seahawks with 80 tackles (59, 21)...Also paced Seattle defense with four forced fumbles and added three passes defensed and five special teams stops...Snared first career interception at Cincinnati (10/6)...Matched two career highs vs. Denver (11/24), posting three sacks and 11 tackles...Also forced two fumbles in that Bronco contest and was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week.

1990: In third season, moved into starting ROLB slot and opened first 12 games before landing on injured reserve with groin injury...Made 50 tackles (41, 9) and also contributed five sacks, four passes defensed, two forced fumbles, a career-high four fumble recoveries and one special teams stop...Set up game-winning field goal in overtime at San Diego (11/25) with fumble recovery at Chargers' 23-yard line...Sustained groin injury vs. Houston (12/2).

1989: Earned second straight trip to Pro Bowl as special teamer but made biggest impact as a pass-rush specialist...Led team with 10.5 sacks despite limited playing time and was named to Sports Illustrated's All-NFL team as the designated pass-rusher...Also led the team in forced fumbles (5) and special teams tackles (13)...Started three of first four games at LOLB but was later moved into pass-rush role...Recorded 36 tackles (27, 9)...Key part of 17-16 win at San Diego (10/15), notching career-best three sacks (later equaled) and two forced fumbles...Also tallied two sacks the following week vs. Denver (10/22).

1988: Went from undrafted rookie free agent to Pro Bowler in one campaign, racking up 16 tackles on special teams to be chosen as the AFC's representative in that category...Debut NFL performance at Denver (9/4) included four kick-coverage tackles...Saw some late-season action on defense in pass-rush situations, making one mark each in the tackle, pass defense, forced fumble and fumble recovery stat columns...Not drafted, signed by the Seahawks as a college free agent on 6/3/88.

COLLEGE: Became a four-year starter at left outside LB at Southern, recording 312 tackles, 18 sacks, seven interceptions and two fumble recoveries...As a senior, finished second on team with 77 tackles and added 4.5 sacks, two interceptions and four passes defensed...Also blocked a pair of kicks...Earned second straight second-team All-SWAC honors as a junior after totaling 104 tackles, 5.5 sacks, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions...Had perhaps finest all-around collegiate season as a sophomore, leading the team with 107 tackles and adding a career-high (and team-best) eight sacks...Also picked off a pair of passes, forced two fumbles and recovered three more...Stepped into starting lineup at LOLB during freshman season and produced 24 tackles and one interception...Majored in physical education.

PERSONAL: Married to Anita, couple has two children, daughter Atina (5/14/85) and son Rufus, Jr. (10/2/90)...Spends off-season in Katy, Texas...During collegiate career, Porter's uncle was President at Grambling University, Southern's arch-rival...A three-sport standout at Capitol High School in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, lettered in football, basketball and baseball...Full name is Rufus Porter, born May 18, 1965 in Amite, Louisiana.

1996 Game Summaries

GREEN BAY 34, TAMPA BAY 3
Tampa, FL, September 1, 1996
Attendance: 54,102

Eventual Super Bowl Champion Green Bay got its offense rolling early at Houlihan's Stadium, jumping to a 24-3 halftime lead behind three TE Keith Jackson touchdown receptions (1, 4 and 51 yards). Buccaneer rookie FB Mike Alstott provided an auspicious start to his breakout season with a game-high four receptions for 42 yards and added 15 yards on five carries. PK Michael Husted posted the Bucs' only points with a 48-yard field goal, but could not offset the passing of league MVP Brett Favre. Favre completed 20 of 27 passes for 247 yards and four touchdowns. Defensively, the Bucs were led by LB Lonnie Marts, who contributed 10 tackles and a forced fumble; the team, however, surrendered a season-worst 406 total net yards to the Packers.

DETROIT 21, TAMPA BAY 6
Detroit, MI, September 8, 1996
Attendance: 54,229

The Buccaneers forced 10 Detroit punts and held the Lions to just 234 yards and 12 first downs in Detroit's Silverdome, but were victimized by turnovers and a handful of big plays. Tampa Bay's opening drive reached Detroit's 10-yard line before stalling, forcing the Bucs to settle for a 30-yard FG and a 3-0 lead, which they pushed to 6-0 in the second quarter on another Husted three-pointer (41 yds.). However, after producing just 63 yards of offense through the first quarter and a half, the Lions abruptly took the lead on a 54-yard burst around left end by RB Barry Sanders. Three players later, Detroit CB Corey Raymond redirected a Trent Dilfer pass and returned it 25 yards to give the Lions a 14-6 halftime advantage. The Bucs were held scoreless in the second half despite making four more excursions into Detroit territory and the Lions put the finishing touches on the scoring with a 23-yard TD reception by WR Herman Moore. Fifth-year wideout Courtney Hawkins was the Bucs' most reliable weapon, posting a team season-high 111 yards on eight catches.

DENVER 27, TAMPA BAY 23
Denver, CO, September 15, 1996
Attendance: 71,535

Despite the Buccaneers' best effort of the young season, Denver struck last in a back-and-forth battle to slip away with the four-point win in Mile High Stadium. Denver scored first on a 69-yard interception return by S Tyrone Braxton, but, after the team's traded field goals, the Bucs responded with back-to-back scoring drives to take a 13-10 lead into halftime. RB Reggie Brooks posted the Bucs' first rushing touchdown of '96 on a weaving eight-yard TD run, capping a 79-yard drive that was kept alive by a 36-yard Trent Dilfer-to-TE Jackie Harris pass on third-and-19. Dilfer then moved the Bucs 54 yards downfield in the last 66 seconds of the half to set up PK Michael Husted's go-ahead 35-yard field goal. Ten unanswered points by the Broncos in the third quarter pushed Denver back into the lead, but Dilfer quickly responded with a 40-yard TD pass to WR Alvin Harper to knot the proceedings again at 20. That pass was set up by a 56-yard scamper by Brooks, a run that tied for eighth-longest in team history. In the final period, LB Derrick Brooks' first career interception set Tampa Bay up for a 28-yard field goal by Husted and a three-point lead. Unfortunately, QB John Elway, who was definitely not facing his first fourth-quarter come-from-behind situation, led the Broncos on a game-winning touchdown march that chewed up 80 yards and over eight minutes on the clock. Outstanding performances for the Bucs included Brooks' 114 rushing yards, Tampa Bay's only 100-yard rushing game of the season, Harris' season-best 96 receiving yards and Brooks career-high 19 tackles to go with his timely interception.

SEATTLE 17, TAMPA BAY 13
Tampa, FL, September 22, 1996
Attendance: 30,212

The Bucs' fourth loss of '96 was even more heart-breaking than the third as Tampa Bay surrendered a 10-point lead in the final nine minutes of play in Houlihan's Stadium. Seattle QB Rick Mirer, held to just 71 passing yards through the first three-plus quarters, steered the Seahawks on consecutive TD marches of 83 and 61 yards, racking up 138 yards through the air in that span. LB Hardy Nickerson (nine tackles, one interception) and DT Warren Sapp (six tackles, two sacks) led the defensive charge that resulted in a 10-3 halftime lead for Tampa Bay. After alternating field goals, the Bucs embarked on an 80-yard TD drive that was unexpectedly kept alive by S John Lynch's 40-yard breakaway run on a fake punt. RB Reggie Brooks provided the drive's clencher with a two-yard TD plunge up the middle. Nickerson's fourth-quarter interception and 17-yard return to the Seahawks' 32-yard line then set up a 28-yard Michael Husted field goal that pushed Tampa Bay's lead to 13-3.

GAME 5
DETROIT 27, TAMPA BAY 0
Tampa, FL, September 29, 1996
Attendance: 34,961

The Buccaneers were poised to strike first in their game five matchup with Detroit, but an errant pass by QB Trent Dilfer was rerouted by Lion S Bennie Blades, sending Tampa Bay in the direction of its fifth straight defeat. Dilfer guided the Bucs 67 yards to the Detroit four-yard line on Tampa Bay's second possession of the game, but Blades picked off a third-and-four pass intended for RB LeRoy Thompson and returned it 98 yards for a Lion score, in the process recording the longest interception return ever against Tampa Bay. The Detroit duo of QB Scott Mitchell and WR Herman Moore provided most of the remaining damage, hooking up nine times for 104 yards and a touchdown. Buccaneer free safety Melvin Johnson turned in a career-best 11 tackles to lead the Tampa Bay defense and rookie CB Donnie Abraham had the first of a string of solid outings, turning in eight tackles and two passes defensed.

GAME 6
TAMPA BAY 24, MINNESOTA 13
Tampa, FL, October 13, 1996
Attendance: 32,175

Tampa Bay Head Coach Tony Dungy earned his first NFL victory in fitting fashion as his Buccaneer squad took down Minnesota, the team for which Dungy had served as defensive coordinator the previous four years. The Vikings scored first on a 26-yard scamper around right end by RB Robert Smith in the first quarter, forging a 7-0 lead that held until halftime. Tampa Bay owned the second half, however, scoring four times, twice by WR Robb Thomas. Seeing his first extensive action after signing with the Bucs in August, Thomas hauled in QB Trent Dilfer's 31-yard strike just as he was crossing the goal line in the third quarter, tying the score at seven. Minnesota scored next on a 33-yard field goal, but rookie FB Mike Alstott responded with one of the Bucs' most exhilarating plays of the season to give Tampa Bay its first lead. Alstott took a short swing pass from Dilfer, bounced off two would-be tacklers, dragged two more Vikings from the five to the goal line and extended the ball over the line as he was shoved out of bounds. Three plays later, S Melvin Johnson intercepted Viking QB Warren Moon's pass, setting up a short Buc drive ending in an 11-yard Dilfer-to-Thomas TD toss. The teams traded field goals but Minnesota was unable to mount a comeback thanks to a DT Warren Sapp sack that forced Moon to fumble. Dilfer finished with 22 completions in 35 attempts and a career-best three TD passes while Sapp and DEs Chidi Ahanotu and Regan Upshaw combined for three sacks.

GAME 7
ARIZONA 13, TAMPA BAY 9
Phoenix, AZ, October 20, 1996
Attendance: 27,738

The Buccaneers were looking to forge a winning streak with a victory in Arizona, but an outstanding defensive effort was squandered by a penalty-prone squad that racked up 14 infractions for 114 yards. The Bucs outgained the Cardinals in total yards, 313-237, and committed no turnovers, but Tampa Bay's second-half comeback came up just short. Tampa Bay QB Trent Dilfer completed 22 of 35 passes for the second straight week, six to WR Courtney Hawkins for 74 yards. Arizona had only three possessions in the first half, but the first two lasted over eight minutes thanks to numerous Buc penalties and resulted in a 10-0 lead. Tampa Bay's best efforts resulted in a pair of long-distance field goal tries (49 and 52 yards), each of which were errant. Scrambling to come back in the second half, the Buc defense allowed just 66 yards and three points. Rookie FB Mike Alstott notched his first career rushing touchdown in the fourth period on a one-yard dive over the middle, but PK Michael Husted's extra point attempt was blocked, snapping a career-long streak of 78 consecutive extra points made. Though the offense couldn't complete the comeback, the Bucs' defense began a streak of seven consecutive games in which it would not allow more than 17 points.

GAME 8
GREEN BAY 13, TAMPA BAY 7
Green Bay, WI, October 27, 1996
Attendance: 60,627

Proving much more effective in its second try against Green Bay, the Buccaneer defense held the high-powered Packer attack to just 13 points in Lambeau Field but saw its counterpart hold the Tampa Bay offense to a single score. Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer (15-of-29, 164 yards, one TD, two INTs) and Packer QB Brett Favre (19-of-31, 178 yards, no TDs, one INT) put up similar numbers, but Green Bay RB Edgar Bennett ran for 93 yards as the home team held the rushing advantage 129 yards to 57. Green Bay took a 13-0 lead into the intermission, a margin that could have been wider but for the efforts of Buccaneer S John Lynch, who had seven tackles, one interception and two passes defensed in the first two quarters. Though Tampa Bay did not crack the end zone at hostile Lambeau field until midway through the final period on an 11-yard TD catch by TE Dave Moore, the Bucs still held the ball in the final minutes with a chance to pull off a significant upset. Moore's TD, just the second of his career, pulled the Bucs to within six, but the visitors' final comeback shot ended when Dilfer was sacked for a nine-yard loss on fourth-and-six.

GAME 9
CHICAGO 13, TAMPA BAY 10
Chicago, IL, November 3, 1996
Attendance: 58,727

For the third straight week, the Buccaneer defense held a road opponent to exactly 13 points, but Tampa Bay was again unable to turn that effort into a victory. In his first start of the season, RB Errict Rhett paced the team with 67 yards on 20 carries and WR Robb Thomas added six receptions for 76 yards, but the Bucs were outdueled by Bear RBs Raymont Harris and Rashaan Salaam, who combined for 172 yards on 35 carries. Though Chicago scored first on a 27-yard Jeff Jaeger field goal, the Bucs took the lead in the second quarter on TE Dave Moore's 17-yard TD catch, his second scoring grab in as many weeks. That score came on the first play after rookie CB Donnie Abraham intercepted Chicago QB Dave Krieg's third-down pass attempt and returned it to the Bear 17. The teams then traded field goals to give Tampa Bay a 10-6 halftime lead. Yet again, the Buccaneer defense was nearly immovable in the second half, allowing just 69 total yards, but a disputed RB Errict Rhett fumble gave Chicago a first down at Tampa Bay's 10-yard line early in the third quarter. Harris scored on a one-yard run a few plays later. Thereafter, five consecutive Buccaneer drives stalled at almost exactly midfield.

GAME 10
TAMPA BAY 20, OAKLAND 17 (OT)
Tampa, FL, October 10, 1996
Attendance: 45,392

PK Michael Husted's fourth overtime field goal in two years gave the Bucs their fifth consecutive victory in sudden-death affairs and their second straight home win. Tampa Bay started off on the right foot, taking the opening possession 78 yards on a nine-and-a-half minute drive that concluded with RB Errict Rhett's five-yard TD catch, the first scoring reception of the third-year back's career. The Bucs converted three third downs on the march, including a third-and-14 situation that was resolved by a 24-yard Trent Dilfer-Karl Williams pass. The Raiders scored next on an 18-yard halfback pass from RB Harvey Williams to WR James Jett, one play after Dilfer was forced to fumble on a sack by Oakland DE Anthony Smith. With the game tied at 10 at the intermission, Oakland struck first in the second half on an eight-yard TD toss from QB Jeff Hostetler to WR Daryl Hobbs in the closing minutes of the third period. Tampa Bay wasted little time in responding however, stringing together a 14-play, 73-yard TD drive on its next possession. RB Mike Alstott was the wrecking ball that powered that drive, gaining 30 tough yards on four runs and two receptions, including the final two-yard TD strike. However, Oakland was poised to take the game in the final seconds of regulation as PK Cole Ford lined up for a 28-yard field goal. When the attempt hooked left, Dilfer was given a chance in overtime to lead the Bucs to victory. On his team's second possession, Dilfer again looked to Alstott, hitting him on a 20-yard pass down to the Raiders 15, then handing off to the FB for another bruising 10-yard run up the middle that positioned Husted for the game-winning chip shot. Alstott finished with a career-best 121 combined yards and Rhett pounded for a total of 95 yards on 33 carries.

GAME 11
TAMPA BAY 25, SAN DIEGO 17
San Diego, CA, October 17, 1996
Attendance: 57,526

Behind its most stirring effort of the season Tampa Bay defeated San Diego in Jack Murphy Stadium to put an end to a number of negative notes including: a 10-game road losing streak; a 1-19 record and a 12-game losing streak in West Coast games; and an 0-6 franchise mark against the Chargers. That outcome seemed doubtful 11 minutes into the game as San Diego streaked to a 14-0 lead prompted by WR Charlie Jones' 63-yard TD catch-and-run on the third play from scrimmage. After the Chargers converted a Marvin Marshall fumbled punt return into a one-play TD drive (14-yard Leonard Russell run) the Bucs began their comeback with a seven-play field goal drive. QB Trent Dilfer completed three of four passes on that march for 46 yards, beginning a breakout performance that would result in a career-best 30-of-40, 327-yard, three-TD outing. In the second quarter Dilfer positioned the offense for a four-yard TD run by rookie FB Mike Alstott, then got the ball back with 1:27 left and conducted a 55-yard two-minute drill resulting in a 29-yard field goal. San Diego momentarily halted the Bucs' comeback, scoring the only points of the third period on a 42-yard field goal, but Tampa Bay answered with 12 straight points in the last frame on three scores set up by the defense and special teams. Rookie CB Donnie Abraham intercepted a Stan Humphries pass and returned it 21 yards to the Charger 13, setting up a Buc field goal. Two plays later, S John Lynch redirected another Humphries offering, returning it 25 yards to the opposing 18-yard line and putting the Bucs in position for RB Errict Rhett's one-yard go-ahead touchdown dive. The Bucs added a clinching field goal in the final two minutes after Marshall returned a Charger punt 29 yards to the San Diego 34. As a unit, the Buc offense outgained its opponent 423-277, posting its highest output in two-and-a-half seasons.

Attendance: 40,203

Tampa Bay's third consecutive victory came courtesy of another outstanding defensive effort as the Saints were limited to just 242 total yards and a ground gain of 58. Individual defensive standouts included LB Derrick Brooks (10 tackles), S Melvin Johnson (five tackles, one INT) and S John Lynch (five tackles, one INT, one FF, one FR). Rookie CB Donnie Abraham also snared an interception, his team-leading fourth of the season, redirecting Jim Everett's third pass of the game. That turnover precipitated a 43-yard FG by PK Michael Husted, who followed with another three-pointer from 38 yards out in the second quarter as Tampa Bay built a 6-0 halftime lead. QB Trent Dilfer then gave the Bucs all the points they needed by driving the team 80 yards for a touchdown on the opening possession of the third quarter. Rookie FB Mike Alstott, finishing up a spectacular string of November performances that would earn him NFC Offensive Rookie of the Month honors, put the ball in the end zone with one of his trademark tackle-breaking jaunts on a 17-yard screen pass. The Saints responded with their only scoring drive of the game, a 72-yard march keyed by a 24-yard Everett pass to WR Michael Haynes. New Orleans threatened in the fourth quarter, reaching a first down at the Bucs' 39-yard line, but Lynch's interception of Everett's downfield toss intended for WR Torrance Small put the ball back in Tampa Bay's hands. The Bucs then ran out the last five minutes on the clock behind the power running of RB Errict Rhett and key third down passes to WRs Karl Williams (10 yards) and Robb Thomas (30). Alstott finished with a season-high 91 yards on seven receptions.

CAROLINA 24, TAMPA BAY 0
Charlotte, NC, December 1, 1996
Attendance: 57,623

The Bucs' winning stretch hit a speed bump in Charlotte, where the Panthers' suffocating defense kept its own end zone untouched. Tampa Bay's string of allowing 17 points or less ended at seven games, but all three Carolina touchdowns were scored or directly set up by its defense. The Panthers' opening drive ate 9:14 off the clock and traveled 78 yards before stalling inside the Buc five-yard line against a strong defensive line wall of Warren Sapp, Chidi Ahanotu, Brad Culpepper and Regan Upshaw. Carolina settled for a field goal near the end of the first period, but followed with the game's biggest play on the first snap of the second quarter as rookie DE Shawn King sacked QB Trent Dilfer, forced a fumble, recovered the loose ball and returned it 12 yards for a touchdown. The Panthers added one touchdown in each of the next two quarters, both on short drives following interceptions.

Facing an intense pass rush all day that resulted in four sacks, Dilfer still found time to complete 23 of 41 passes for 236 yards.

GAME 14
TAMPA BAY 24, WASHINGTON 10
Tampa, FL, December 8, 1996
Attendance: 44,733

Displaying a consistency reflective of their stalwart T Paul Gruber, who appeared in his team-record 133rd game in this contest, the Buccaneers dominated Washington en route to their fourth win in five weeks. Gruber and his linemates blocked for an unstoppable running game that rolled up 209 yards, the team's highest rushing total since 12/4/94 (213, also against Washington). It was the defense, however, that set up Tampa Bay's first score, as Martin Mayhew's interception of a Gus Frerotte pass stationed the Bucs at Washington's 39, from where a 22-yard Trent Dilfer-to-TE Jackie Harris scoring pass keyed a touchdown drive. The Redskins' next possession also aborted early as S John Lynch forced RB Terry Allen to fumble, setting up a Buc field goal. A 29-yard Scott Blanton field goal on the first play of the second quarter pulled Washington to within 10-3, but the Bucs held the ball for all but three minutes in the period and added a 35-yard Michael Husted field goal at the buzzer. The Bucs broke it wide open in the third, scoring on their first two possessions. After a 19-yard Husted chip shot, rookie FB Mike Alstott powered a 67-yard drive by handling the ball on five of nine plays, the last a 13-yard blast around Gruber's end for a touchdown. The Redskins added a touchdown in the game's closing minutes, but totaled just 247 yards as Pro Bowl RB Terry Allen was limited to 36 on 14 carries. LB Hardy Nickerson combined 10 tackles with a sack while fellow backer Derrick Brooks also contributed 10 tackles along with a suprising four passes defensed. Rookie WR Karl Williams took over the kick return duties and began an amazing three-game stretch by posting a 63-yard kickoff return, the second-longest in team history.

GAME 15
MINNESOTA 21, TAMPA BAY 10
Minneapolis, MN, December 15, 1996
Attendance: 49,302

The Vikings gave the Bucs a little taste of their own defensive medicine, limiting Tampa Bay to a season-low 169 total yards. QB Trent Dilfer was sacked three times and intercepted twice as the Bucs managed just 77 net yards via the airways, but the Bucs did hold an early lead, scoring first on a five-yard blast by RB Errict Rhett in the first quarter. Credit for that drive went to rookie WR Karl Williams, who returned Mitch Berger's punt 72 yards in the first quarter, notching the second-longest punt return in Buc history just one week after posting the team's second-longest kickoff return ever. In all, Williams, brought back four punts for a team-record 109 yards and returned three kickoffs for an additional 81 yards. The Bucs made that lead stand until midway through the second period, when Viking RB Leroy Hoard capped a 61-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown run of his own. Tampa Bay took the lead again in the third quarter, this time courtesy of rookie CB Donnie Abraham, who tied a Buc rookie record with his fifth interception of the season and started the Bucs off on a 68-yard field goal drive. The key play in that march was a 39-yard burst up the middle by rookie FB Mike Alstott, his longest carry of the season. Minnesota took the lead for good later in the period when Hoard again found the end zone, this time from 22 yards out. Buccaneer DT Warren Sapp, who would finish the game with five solo tackles, two sacks and a fumble recovery, gave Tampa Bay its best shot at a go-ahead score in the fourth when he fell on the loose ball after S Charles Mincy caused RB Amp Lee to fumble. However, Dilfer was intercepted two plays later by Orlando Thomas and the Vikings went on to add a padding touchdown on a 36-yard TD catch by WR Cris Carter in the final two minutes.

GAME 16
TAMPA BAY 34, CHICAGO 19
Tampa, FL, December 22, 1996
Attendance: 51,572

Turning in their finest all-around effort in recent memory, the Bucs controlled the ball offensively, defensively and on special teams on the way to a 31-7 halftime lead. Two Chicago scores in the game's final two minutes closed the final gap somewhat, but Tampa Bay still posted its top scoring effort of the year, its most prolific scoring half ever and its first season-finale win since 1992. Though there were many Buc highlights, the most significant moment may have been turned in by rookie WR Karl Williams, who returned a second-quarter punt 88 yards for a touchdown, the longest punt return in team history and only the second Buc kick return ever to find the end zone. Williams' weaving history-maker capped an incredible three week run that included three of the five longest returns in team history and culminated in his selection as NFC Offensive Rookie of the Month. Although Chicago scored first with a 68-yard TD drive in the first period, Tampa Bay answered immediately with a 63-yard drive that ended in a two-yard Trent Dilfer-to-TE Dave Moore TD pass. The Bucs next foray into the end zone came just three minutes later, thanks to an acrobatic one-armed fumble recovery by LB Hardy Nickerson at the Bears' four-yard line. RB Errict Rhett needed just two carries to take it in from there. Williams' return was the next strike after Chicago's resulting possession bogged down, then a three-and-out by the Bears' offense set up a fourth straight Buccaneer score. Rhett powered the next drive with a career-long 30-yard run down to the Bear 20, then watched as Dilfer hooked up with WR Courtney Hawkins on a 15-yard scoring pass. PK Michael Husted helped the Bucs match a team record with 24 second-quarter points by drilling a 50-yard field goal in the closing seconds of the half. The only Buc fireworks of the second half came on a 22-yarder by Husted. The Bucs rotated in a full compliment of defenders in the final quarter, but Pro Bowl LB Hardy Nickerson still stood out, recording seven tackles, two sacks, a fumble recovery and a pass defensed. The victory extended Tampa Bay's home field winning streak to five games, the longest such run in team annals.

BUCS OPEN SEASON WITH ROUT OF ATLANTA (9/13) — QB Steve DeBerg establishes a franchise record with five touchdown passes and the Bucs set marks for most points (48) and largest margin of victory (38) in a 48-10 besting of Atlanta.
STRIKE INTERRUPTS SEASON (10/1) – The NFL Players Association calls for its second work stoppage in six seasons. After a 24-day strike in which replacement players were used in three games, the NFL and Players Union come to an agreement.

TESTAVERDE PASSES FOR 469 YARDS (10/16) — QB Vinny Testaverde passes for the second-highest single-game yardage in franchise history (469) at Indianapolis.
BUCS DEFEAT EVENTUAL AFC CHAMPION BUFFALO (12/4) — Tampa Bay's win over the eventual AFC Champion Buffalo Bills is the first 10-5 score in NFL history.

TAMPA BAY DEFEATS CHICAGO FOR FIRST TIME IN 13 TRIES (10/8) — The Bucs score 28 first half points (second most in team history) to end 12 games of frustration against the Bears before the largest crowd ever at a Bucs game (72,077).
BUCS COMPLETE SEASON SWEEP OF BEARS (11/19) — Donald Igwebuike's last-second 28-yard field goal completes the first-ever season sweep of Chicago. The win marks the Bucs' first at Soldier Field in ten years (9/30/79).
WR MARK CARRIER FINISHES PRO BOWL SEASON (12/24) — With six catches for 101 yards versus Pittsburgh, WR Mark Carrier caps off a Pro Bowl season in which he set club records of 86 receptions and 1,422 receiving yards.

TAMPA BAY JUMPS OUT TO BEST START SINCE '79 (9/30) — After beating the Minnesota Vikings 23-20 in overtime, the Bucs run their record to 3-1.

PERKINS FIRED (12/3) — Head Coach Ray Perkins is relieved of his position after Tampa Bay drops to 5-8. Assistant Head Coach/Receivers Richard Williamson is named interim head coach.

1991

GIANTS WIN SUPER BOWL XXV (1/23) – The New York Giants win Super Bowl XXV in thrilling fashion, beating their in-state rivals the Buffalo Bills 21-19 at Tampa Stadium.

WILLIAMSON NAMED HEAD COACH (2/4) — Gay Culverhouse is announced as the team's new president, Phil Krueger is named general manager and Richard Williamson becomes the head coach.

COBB SETS TEAM RECORD FOR RUSHING TDs IN A GAME (11/20) — RB Reggie Cobb establishes a team mark with three rushing scores in a 30-21 Buccaneer triumph over the Detroit Lions.

SELMON, BELL AND McKAY HONORED (12/8) – DE Lee Roy Selmon, RB Ricky Bell and Head Coach John McKay are inducted into the team's Krewe of Honor.

WILLIAMSON FIRED (12/27) — Richard Williamson is relieved as head coach after compiling a 4-15 record.

1992

WYCHE NAMED HEAD COACH (1/10) — Former Cincinnati Bengals Head Coach Sam Wyche is named as Richard Williamson's replacement. Wyche becomes the fifth head coach in Tampa Bay history.

WILLIAMS INDUCTED INTO KREWE OF HONOR (9/6) — QB Doug Williams becomes the third player inducted into the team's Krewe of Honor.

COBB RECORDS FIFTH-BEST RUSHING SEASON (12/27) — The Bucs defeat the Phoenix Cardinals 7-3 as RB Reggie Cobb caps off the fifth-best rushing performance in team history (1,171 yards).

BUCS SIGN NICKERSON AS AN UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (3/18) – Former Pittsburgh Steelers LB Hardy Nickerson signs a three-year contract to become the Buccaneers' first free agent acquisition under the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement.

NICKERSON EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (12/29) — After compiling a team record 214 tackles, Nickerson is voted as the NFC's starting LB in the Pro Bowl and later becomes only the second Buccaneer to be named AP All-Pro.

CULVERHOUSE DIES (8/25) — Hugh Culverhouse dies of lung cancer at the age of 75. The team is placed under control of a three-man trust headed by Culverhouse's law partner Steven Story, along with Jack Donlan and Fred Cone.

McKAY NAMED GENERAL MANAGER (11/8) — Vice-President/Football Operations Rich McKay is promoted to General Manager.

RHETT RUSHES FOR 192 YARDS (12/4) — RB Errict Rhett records the second-best single-game rushing total in team history when he rambles for 192 yards on 40 carries (third-most in team annals) in a 26-21 victory over the Washington Redskins. Rhett eventually becomes first Buc rookie to rush for over 1,000 yards (1,011).

WILSON RECORDS MOST PROLIFIC RECEIVING DAY (12/11) — WR Charles Wilson hauls in four catches for a team record 176 yards, including scoring strikes of 71 and 44 yards.

DECEMBER 24—The Buccaneers are defeated by the Packers 34-19 in front of the first sellout at Tampa Stadium in two years (11/15/92).

1995

BUCCANEERS SOLD TO MALCOLM GLAZER (1/16) — Steven Story announces that, pending NFL approval, the Buccaneers have been sold to Palm Beach investor Malcolm Glazer for the highest price ever paid for a sports franchise.
NFL APPROVES SALE OF TEAM (3/13) — NFL owners unanimously approve Malcolm Glazer's purchase of the Buccaneers one day after the NFL Finance Committee gave its unanimous approval at the Owner's Meetings in Phoenix, Arizona.
BUCS SIGN DRAFT PICKS IN RECORD FASHION (5/10) — With the signing of S Melvin Johnson, Tampa Bay becomes the quickest team in NFL history to sign all its draft picks.
SALE OF THE TEAM IS FINALIZED (6/30) — Malcolm Glazer officially becomes the team's new owner after the sale of the team is finalized in Charlotte, N.C. Bryan and Joel Glazer are named executive vice-presidents.
BUCS MOVE INTO SOLE POSSESSION OF FIRST PLACE (10/15) — PK Michael Husted's 51-yard game-winning FG propels Tampa Bay past Minnesota and into sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division. The victory marks the first time since the final day of the 1981 season that the team has been alone in first place.
GRUBER MARKS RECORD START (11/26) — LT Paul Gruber makes his 118th career start, thus surpassing Lee Roy Selmon's team record of 117.
RHETT SURPASSES 1,000-YARD MARK (12/3) — RB Errict Rhett goes over 1,000 yards for the second consecutive year to become only the 12th player in NFL history to accomplish the feat in his first two league seasons.
WYCHE IS FIRED (12/27) — The team announces that Sam Wyche will not return as head coach in 1996. Wyche leaves his post with a 23-41 record.

DUNGY NAMED HEAD COACH (1/22) — Minnesota Defensive Coordinator Tony Dungy is named as the Buccaneers' sixth head coach.
NICKERSON RE-SIGNS WITH TEAM (2/22) — LB Hardy Nickerson, the Buccaneers' Most Valuable Player in 1993 and '95, agrees to a four-year deal to remain with the team.
COMMUNITY INVESTMENT TAX PASSES (9/3) — Hillsborough County voters pass the Community Investment Tax by a 53-47% margin. The tax will fund the construction of a new stadium and practice facility as well as various other community projects.
DUNGY WINS FIRST GAME (10/8) — Tony Dungy earns his first victory as Buccaneer head coach with a 24-13 victory over his former team, the Minnesota Vikings.
BUCS DEFEAT CHARGERS FOR FIRST CALIFORNIA WIN SINCE '80 (11/17) — Tampa Bay edges the San Diego Chargers 25-17 to earn its first victory in California since 1980 (24-23 vs. San Francisco).

GRUBER RE-SIGNS (2/13) – LT Paul Gruber, the team's designated franchise player and cornerstone of the Buc offensive line for the past eight years, signs a three-year deal to remain in Tampa.
BUCCANEERS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND COLORS (4/9) – The team unveils its eagerly anticipated new logo and color scheme at a noon downtown ceremony. The new logo consisting of a red pirate flag with a skull and crossed swords, draws instant rave reviews. The team colors are red, pewter, black and orange.
STATE SUPREME COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF COUNTY, BUCS (5/22) – The Florida State Supreme Court refuses former Tampa Mayor Bill Poe's opposition to the stadium. In a 7-0 decision, the Court rules all aspects of the tax are constitutional.

Most Valuable Players

Two separate awards are presented each year to the team member chosen as the Bucs' Most Valuable Player. The St. Petersburg Times' award is determined by a vote of writers who regularly cover the team. The Tampa Sports Club, a cross section of the Tampa sports community, votes for its award. The Newspaper Enterprise Association no longer conducts a poll which was won in 1977 and 1979 by Lee Roy Selmon, in 1976 by Dave Pear and in 1978 by David Lewis.

Ed Block Courage Award

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and for families in crisis.

Buccaneers in Overtime

September 9, 1979 - Tampa Bay 29, at Baltimore 26: Colts win the toss. On Baltimore's third play from scrimmage, Buccaneer DE Randy Crowder sacks Colt QB Greg Landry, forcing a fumble that is recovered by DT Bill Kollar at the opposition's 14-yard line. PK Neil O'Donoghue kicks a 31-yard field goal on the next play to win the game at 1:41 of OT.

October 12, 1980 - at Tampa Bay 14, Green Bay 14: Packers win the toss. After the two teams exchange a pair of punts, Green Bay QB Lynn Dickey continues the most prolific passing day ever by a Buccaneer opponent (418 yards), guiding the Packers into Tampa Bay territory in the final minute of overtime. A 21-yard completion to WR Aundra Thompson helps Green Bay reach the Bucs' 18-yard line, but a 36-yard field goal attempt by PK Tom Birney sails wide right as time expires, resulting in the NFL's first tie since 1978.

January 2, 1983 - at Tampa Bay 26, Chicago 23: Bears win the toss. Chicago takes possession on its own 20 but gains just five yards as QB Jim McMahon is nearly sacked on successive plays. After a 35-yard punt, the Bucs take over on their own 40-yard line. RB James Wilder takes a pitch around the right end on the Bucs' first play and runs 47 yards to the Chicago 13. Two plays later, PK Bill Capece hits a 33-yard field goal at 3:14 of OT to send the Bucs into the playoffs.

September 18, 1983 - Minnesota 19, at Tampa Bay 16: Vikings win the toss. The Buccaneers force a Minnesota punt and take over on their own 47-yard line. QB Jack Thompson produces three first downs and leads the Bucs down to the Vikings' 15-yard line, but PK Bill Capece misses a 33-yard field goal. Minnesota RB Ricky Young turns a short pass into a 48-yard gain to the Buccaneer 27-yard line, setting up a 42-yard game-winning field goal by PK Benny Ricardo at 5:33 of OT.

October 9, 1983 - at Dallas 27, Tampa Bay 24: Cowboys win the toss. Dallas takes over on its own 10-yard line after the kickoff and reaches Buccaneer territory with a 46-yard pass from QB Danny White to RB Ron Springs. RB Tony Dorsett's 12-yard jaunt around end sets up a 50-yard field goal try by PK Rafael Septien. Septien's attempt falls short, but a roughing the kicker penalty sets up another try by the Cowboy kicker and he converts from 42 yards out at 4:38 of OT.

December 12, 1983 - Green Bay 12, at Tampa Bay 9: Packers win the toss. Green Bay keeps the ball on the ground in the opening drive with RBs Jessie Clark and Harlan Huckleby running for 43 of the 65 yards gained on the possession. A 20-yard sweep by Huckleby down to Tampa Bay's seven-yard line sets up a game-winning chip of 23 yards by PK Jan Stenerud at 4:07 of OT.

September 30, 1984 - at Tampa Bay 30, Green Bay 27: Packers win the toss. After the teams trade punts, Green Bay begins at its own 27-yard line but is again forced to punt after three plays. A 16-yard Steve DeBerg pass to FB Adger Armstrong brings the Bucs down to the Packers' 17-yard line and, despite consecutive holding penalties, PK Obed Ariri connects on a 48-yard field goal at 10:38 of OT.

October 14, 1984 - at Detroit 13, Tampa Bay 7: Buccaneers win the toss. Buccaneer QB Steve DeBerg leads Tampa Bay into Detroit territory with consecutive completions of 10, 19 and 14 yards, but RB James Wilder fumbles at the Lions' 41-yard line (recovered by William Gay). On Detroit's fifth play, QB Gary Danielson hits WR Leonard Thompson in stride for a 37-yard TD at 4:34 of OT.

November 24, 1985 - at Tampa Bay 19, Detroit 16: Lions win the toss. After forcing two three-and-out series by Detroit, Tampa Bay takes over at its own 38-yard line. After opening the drive with a 19-yard Steve Young to WR Gerald Carter completion, the Bucs run on nine straight plays, driving to the Detroit eight to set up a 24-yard field goal by Donald Igwebuike at 12:31 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - at Atlanta 23, Tampa Bay 20: Falcons win the toss. Neither team advances with its first possession, but the Falcons put together a 52-yard drive after taking a Buccaneer punt at their own 33-yard line, keyed by a 22-yard scamper by RB Cliff Austin on a draw play. PK Mick Luckhurst converts on a 34-yard field goal attempt to win the game at 12:35 of OT.

October 5, 1986 - at L.A. Rams 26, Tampa Bay 20: Rams win the toss. The Bucs lose their second overtime game in as many weeks on L.A.'s first possession as RB Eric Dickerson breaks a 42-yard touchdown run up the middle at 2:16 of OT.

December 11, 1988 - at New England 10, Tampa Bay 7: Buccaneers win the toss but elect to kick. Patriot QB Tony Eason opens New England's first possession with a 21-yard completion to WR Irving Fryar and follows three plays later with a 26-yard hookup with Fryar. Two short runs by FB John Stephens set up a 27-yard field goal by PK Jason Staurovsky at 3:08 of OT.

September 30, 1990 - Tampa Bay 23, at Minnesota 20: Vikings win the toss. Minnesota drives to the Buccaneer 31, but former Buc PK Donald Igwebuike's 48-yard field goal try is wide left. After a Tampa Bay punt, CB Wayne Haddix picks off QB Rich Gannon's pass on the Vikings' next play and returns it to the Minnesota 26-yard line. RB Reggie Cobb runs up the middle for six yards to position the Bucs for a successful 36-yard field goal by PK Steve Christie at 9:11 of OT.

November 27, 1994 - at Tampa Bay 20, at Minnesota 17: Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay's initial drive opens with a 16-yard reception by WR Courtney Hawkins but stalls at the Vikings' 49-yard line. P Dan Stryzinski's punt is fielded at Minnesota's 18, but is nullified by a penalty. On the re-kick, Viking WR Eric Guliford muffs the punt at Minnesota's four-yard line where it is recovered by long-snapper Ed Brady. PK Michael Husted wins the game with a 22-yard field goal on the next play which came at 2:08 of OT.

October 15, 1995 - at Tampa Bay 20, Minnesota 17: Buccaneers win the toss. Minnesota forces a Tampa Bay punt and takes over on its own 48. QB Warren Moon drives the Vikings to the Buccaneer 35-yard line, but PK Fuad Reveiz misses a 53-yard field goal attempt. The Bucs' ensuing possession nearly ends on a fumble by TE Jackie Harris, but WR Lawrence Dawsey strips Viking S Orlando Thomas during the return and G Ian Beckles falls on the loose ball at the Viking 45. A 15-yard Trent Dilfer-to-Alvin Harper pass then positions the Bucs for PK Michael Husted's game-winning 51-yard field goal at 8:37 of OT.

December 10, 1995 - at Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10: Buccaneers win the toss. Trent Dilfer passes to TE Jackie Harris for nine yards and WR Horace Copeland for 23 yards, plus an eight-yard scamper by RB Errict Rhett moves Tampa Bay into Packer territory. Rhett is stopped for a loss of one on a third-and-one attempt from Green Bay's 28-yard line, but PK Michael Husted kicks a 47-yard game-winning field goal on the next play at 11:14 of OT.

November 10, 1996 - at Tampa Bay 20, Oakland 17: Buccaneers win the toss. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Buc defense forces a Raider three-and-out and the home team gets the ball back at its own 39. Two big-gainers by rookie FB Mike Alstott, a 20-yard reception of a QB Trent Dilfer pass and a 10-yard run up the middle, position Tampa Bay at the Oakland five, from where PK Michael Husted kicks the game-winner, a 23-yarder with 3:11 remaining.

Bucs in the Community

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers have been active in the community through various charitable activities. Several Buccaneer players contribute significant amounts of time to an established charity while others choose to create their own philanthropic program. The following are some of the programs players are involved with:

- Since 1993, Buccaneers have been "big brothers" in the Big Brothers/Big Sisters program. Two players currently have "little brothers". Michael Husted is entering his fourth year in the program while Steve Ingram, Karl Williams and Jorge Diaz are in their first year. Lauren Dungy, wife of Bucs' head coach Tony Dungy, is currently being matched with a little sister.

- Ten Buccaneer players and coaches have established scholarships to benefit either Bay area students or students from the players' or coaches' high school or college. Those Bucs include Chidi Ahanotu, Derrick Brooks, Eric Curry, Trent Dilfer, Herman Edwards, Paul Gruber, Michael Husted, Tyrone Legette, Tony Mayberry and Hardy Nickerson. Melvin Johnson and Charles Mincy are in the process of setting up funds of their own.

- Michael Husted is in the fifth year of his "Kicks for Kids" program in which he donates money to The Children's Home, Big Brothers/Big Sisters and St. Peter of Claver High School for each successful field goal. Husted is also very involved with those organizations.

- Paul Gruber and Trent Dilfer have hosted a Police Athletic League Youth Football Camp for the past three summers.

- Hardy Nickerson has established the Hardy Nickerson Foundation to benefit at-risk Bay area youth. One of the programs in the foundation is "Hardy's Huddles" which sponsors eleven at-risk youth to attend a private school specializing in life skills. Once a child is placed in a "huddle," they are sponsored through their high school graduation and assisted in entrance to college. Hardy currently has one "huddle" and is preparing to start another "huddle" this fall.

Bucs in the Community

• Defensive Backs/Assistant Head Coach Herman Edwards is in his 10th year hosting the Herm Edwards Charity Golf Classic which raises money for high school athletic programs and college scholarships.

• Mike Alstott, Tony Bouie, Derrick Brooks, Melvin Johnson, John Lynch, Hardy Nickerson and the Buccaneers secondary donate tickets for each Buccaneer home game to local charities or schools.

• Brad Culpepper hosts an annual golf tournament each off-season to benefit The Children's Miracle Network.

• Trent Dilfer makes contributions to the American Red Cross, American Cancer Society, Underprivileged Children's Fund, United Way, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Metropolitan Ministries, and several California homeless shelters. He is also the honorary spokesman for Hillsborough and Pinellas law enforcement agencies, the Police Athletic League, NFL Project Pass, FCA, and the United Way.

• For the second year, Derrick Brooks will work with Audley Evans Center at the Tampa Housing Authority as part of his "Brooks Bunch" program. Through Derrick's contributions, kids in "Brooks Bunch" receive tickets to every regular season Buccaneer home game and have the chance to travel to various locations on educational field-trips.

• Mike Alstott teamed up with Coca-Cola to begin the Mike Alstott Football Camp, a four-day camp that involved 200 children, including 80 Boys and Girls Club members who were able to participate through grants provided by the Buccaneers.

Bucs in the Community

In 1996, the Buccaneers contributed over $500,000 to various community groups for the betterment of the Tampa Bay area. Over 800 not-for-profit organizations received in-kind donations from the Buccaneers, including the following:

The SwashBuclers

Since the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' inaugural season of 1976, the SwashBuclers have led cheers and performed dance routines at all home games. In addition, the SwashBuclers have established a tradition as goodwill ambassadors throughout the Tampa Bay community, making appearances at charities such as the Boys and Girls Clubs of Tampa, Florida Leukemia Association, Special Olympics and the United Way.

The 35-member SwashBucler squad will again be joined by the 10-member Band of Pirates. The Pirates, in their sixth year of existence, assist the SwashBuclers in both cheering for the Bucs and in their community service. Both crews are integral parts of all public Buccaneer events.

The 1997 season will be Sandy Karl's ninth as the director and choreographer for both the SwashBuclers and The Pirates. Karl and her husband, Bob, have operated Tampa's Karl and Di Marco School of Theatre and Dance for the past 25 years.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

Lee Roy Selmon # 63

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995. The Buccaneers' first draft choice in 1976, Selmon proved to be the best player to date in team history. Drafted out of Oklahoma where he won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season, Selmon went on to become the cornerstone of the Buccaneer franchise for nearly a decade.

A member of eight All-America teams while with the Sooners, Selmon was an even greater professional. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), Selmon anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. His lengthy list of Buccaneer records include: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13), career fumbles caused (28.5) and Pro Bowl selections (six). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63, became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986.

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equalled only by his generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Since his retirement, Selmon has remained highly visible in community affairs. In addition to occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority, Selmon has taken on the responsibility of building the University of South Florida's new football program. As Associate Athletic Director at USF, since August of 1994, Selmon has been entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's fledgling football program.

Selmon was born and raised in Eufaula, Okla. He has five brothers and three sisters including Dewey who played for the Bucs from 1976-80 and Lucious who is currently the outside linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Lee Roy and his wife, Claybra, have three children, Brandy (19), Lee Roy, Jr. (16) and Christopher (14).

Buccaneers on the Air

BUCCANEER RADIO NETWORK

Gene Deckerhoff

David Logan

For the seventh consecutive year, WQYK-FM (99.5) will serve as the flagship station for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' Radio Network. WQYK broadcasts all Buccaneer games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area. In addition, WQYK will again simulcast Buccaneer football on its AM affiliate, 50,000-watt WQYK (1010 Talks).

For the past seven years, WQYK has been the top-rated radio station in the Tampa Bay market. The station has consistently been an industry leader and has also been an active corporate participant in the Tampa Bay community. This season, WQYK's coverage will again include the pre-game show along with a post-game report.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the ninth straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has also served as the voice of Florida State football and basketball for the past 18 years. He is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a five-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Joining Deckerhoff in the booth as the color analyst will be former Buccaneer David Logan who is in his seventh season in that role. Logan played nose tackle during a successful career with the Buccaneers (1979-86) and Packers (1987), and ended his playing days with a streak of 103 consecutive starts. Ranked as one of the NFC's top nose tackles, Logan was an All-Pro and All-NFC selection in 1984. Since ending his career as an active player, he has worked as a Tampa network affiliate sportscaster and continues to work for CBS-TV, Jefferson-Pilot and the Sunshine Network.

Jeff Ryan will again serve as the pre-game and halftime host, as well as producer for the broadcasts on the Buccaneer Radio Network. A native of Chicago, Ryan has been with WQYK since 1976.

BUCCANEER PRE-SEASON TV

Beasley Reece

Dave Sims

Scot Brantley

In 1997, WTOG-TV, UPN44, enters its eighth consecutive year as the official television station of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Once again, WTOG will provide coverage of all four Buccaneer pre-season games along with the weekly "Tony Dungy Show" all season long. The station will also produce a thirty-minute pre-game show, "Countdown to Kickoff," that will air prior to the August 9 and August 22 games. One of the top UPN affiliates in the country, WTOG is also considered one of the best and most innovative TV stations in sports production.

WTOG's pre-season package will feature two live telecasts and two games on a tape delay basis. Their coverage kicks off with the home opener on Saturday, August 2 when the Bucs host the Washington Redskins at Houlihan's Stadium (tape delayed Sunday, August 3 at 7:00 PM.) On Saturday, August 9 at 7:30 PM, Tampa Bay will play the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome (live coverage.) The Buccaneers take on their in-state rivals, the Miami Dolphins, on Saturday, August 16 at Houlihan's Stadium (tape-delay Sunday, August 17 at 7:00 PM.) The Bucs will close the pre-season at the Citrus Bowl in Orlando on Friday, August 22 at 7:30 PM against the New York Jets (live coverage).

WTOG-TV Sports Director and former Buccaneer defensive back Beasley Reece will be the game analyst for the Bucs' pre-season game coverage. Reece, who played for the Bucs in 1983 and 1984, started his career as a sportscaster at WTOG-TV in 1985, and spent the following eight and a half years as an award-winning sports director for WVIT-TV in Hartford, Connecticut. Reece was an NBC Boxing commentator for the 1992 Barcelona Olympics and the 1996 Atlanta Olympics, and is also currently a regular season football analyst for NBC.

Joining Reece in the broadcast booth will be announcer Dave Sims. Sims is an Emmy award-winning play-by-play announcer who has called college basketball action for CBS Sports during NCAA tournaments and regular season action with ESPN and the Big East/Creative Sports Network. Sims' other credits include Major League Baseball play-by-play announcing for ESPN and track and field coverage for NBC Sports at the 1988 Seoul Olympics and the 1990 Goodwill games. Sims is currently entering his third year with WCBS-TV in New York as a sports correspondent, weekend anchor and host of a weekly half-hour sports show.

On the field will be sideline reporter Scot Brantley. Brantley, who is a color analyst for the University of Florida Gator Radio Network and host of a local sports radio talk show, will bring in-depth knowledge of the Bucs gained through years of involvement with the team. Brantley was a Tampa Bay linebacker from 1980 to 1988 and a member of two division championship teams. He led the Buccaneers in tackles in 1982 and 1984, and had his first career interception against Terry Bradshaw.

The weekly "Tony Dungy Show," hosted by WTOG's Reece, will include features and commentary from Coach Dungy and his guests. The show gives fans an opportunity to hear Dungy discuss the past week's game and provides a look ahead to the following week's opponent.

Houlihan's Stadium

The 1997 season marks the 22nd and final year that Houlihan's Stadium will serve as the home for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. A new community stadium being constructed just to the south of Houlihan's Stadium (see inset) will be ready for play on September 20, 1998. The Buccaneers have a 30-year lease to play in this new state-of-the-art facility and will share the venue with the Tampa Bay Mutiny soccer team, the University of South Florida's football team as well as numerous other community events. The new stadium (capacity 65,000, expandable to 75,000) will also play host to Super Bowl XXXV in January, 2001.

Houlihan's Stadium, formerly known as Tampa Stadium, has been the site of every Buccaneer home game since the team's inception in 1976. With a football capacity of 74,301, Houlihan's Stadium boasts one of the best grass playing fields in the country. In fact, in 1996, it was voted as the favorite surface of NFL players in a poll taken by the Players' Association.

The groundbreaking for Houlihan's Stadium took place on October 19, 1966 and the stadium was dedicated on November 7, 1967 when the University of Tampa played the University of Tennessee. The stadium was originally built as a 46,500-seat open-ended facility at a cost of $4.6 million. The NFL awarded a franchise to Tampa in 1975 which led to a subsequent $10 million renovation project that increased the stadium's seating capacity to 72,000.

Houlihan's Stadium has hosted many major events through the years including Super Bowl XVIII and Super Bowl XXV, plus the 1976 Pro Bowl. Additionally, the facility annually hosts the Outback Bowl (formerly the Hall of Fame Bowl), the Mutiny plus assorted other sports events and major concerts.

Known affectionately as "The Big Sombrero," Houlihan's Stadium has incorporated such user-friendly features such as its "Safe Ride" and "Tag-A-Kid" programs. In 1990, the Buccaneers installed a 24x32-foot Sony Jumbotron to offer replays and other features to fans.

Houlihan's Stadium and its surrounding complex is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority, a public board consisting of 11 members from both the city of Tampa and Hillsborough County.
